OFFICE OF THE REVISOR OF STATUTES

Minnesota Legislature

January 15, 2014

The Honorable Sandra L. Pappas, Chair
Senate State and Local Government Committee
The Honorable Dan Hall, Ranking Minority Member

The Honorable Michael Nelson, Chair
House Government Operations Committee
The Honorable Joyce Peppin, Ranking Minority Member

Dear Senators Pappas and Hall and Representatives Nelson and Peppin,

The following is the report by the Revisor mandated in Laws 2013, chapter 46, section 3.

Revisor Instruction.

Laws 2013, chapter 46, section 3, contained a Revisor Instruction mandating the Revisor to “identify in Minnesota Statutes sections that contain language requiring or authorizing a political subdivision to publish advertisements for bids in the official newspaper that are inconsistent with Minnesota Statutes, section 331A.03.” The instruction went on to require that the Revisor provide a report listing the sections.

Searches.

To complete this report we ran several searches. The first search was for the exact phrase using the base words “advertis* for bid*”. Fifty five statutes were listed as containing that exact phrase. The second search was for “published in the official newspaper.” That search listed 28 statutes as containing that exact phrase. A search for “published in a qualified newspaper” identified 5 statutes. We also searched for any statute containing the two base words “publish*” and “bid*” or the two base words “advertis*” and “bid*”. Those searches identified 96 and 94 statutes respectively. Finally, we searched for statutes containing the three base words “publish*” “request*” and “proposal*”. This search identified 76 statutes containing all three words. All search results are attached to this report as appendix A.

Method.

Because there were many duplicate "hits" in the searches, we combined all the statutory sections into one list in statutory order for purposes of review. In our review, we discarded sections relating to state government. We also discarded sections that apply only to metropolitan government agencies, such as the metropolitan council, because "political subdivision" as defined in section 331A.01 does not specifically name metropolitan agencies and uses the phrase "local political subdivision". In addition we did not include in this report statutes which contain requirements for bonding or debt obligations and for the sale of real property, even if they relate to local government. We also discarded statutes where entities were exempted because of emergencies.

Statutes for review.

We have attached a list of statutes which the legislature may want to review. They are included with the report as appendix B. I do not assert that these statutes are necessarily inconsistent with section 331A.03, since 331A.03 is a general statute that by its terms identifies what is required by a public notice (unless otherwise provided by law). Section 331A.03, subdivision 3, generally authorizes use of a Web site or a trade journal for certain purposes "in addition to or as an alternative to statutory publication". It could be reasonably interpreted that any section requiring publication for bids authorizes the alternative publication under section 331A.03.

Some of the statutes do not require bids but give the local unit of government an option to advertise for bids or exempt them from a bid requirement. We have excluded from that list exemptions for emergency. The remainder of the sections is contained in appendix C.

Cross Reference Option.

Finally, we also looked for cross-references to any relevant section in chapter 331A, which is the qualified newspaper chapter, and which contains the additional or alternative publication options of a Web site or recognized industry trade journal in section 331A.03, subdivision 3, specifically mentioned in the revisor instruction, and which also contains the authorization for use of a Web site for transportation project bids in section 331A.12. We found only 19 cross references to the searched sections in chapter 331A, and seven of those were internal references contained in chapter 331A itself. The sanitary districts statutes referenced sections in 331A but for publication of creation, annexation, detachment, and dissolution, not advertisement for bids. County statutes often referenced 373.01, and many statutes also referred to the state rules on building and construction contracts in chapter 16C. If notice of the alternate publication methods contained in section 331A.03 for the advertisement for bids would be helpful to the user of statutes, addition of a cross reference in those statutes could provide that notice and clarify that section 331A.03 applies.

I am also enclosing for your review a report done by Craig Lindeke in 2006 pursuant to an instruction to the Revisor in Laws 2004, Chapter 182, and chapter 32. That report identified all "statutes that require publication of public notice" so it is much broader than this report. It is also somewhat obsolete by now but could be a starting point for broader research.

If you would like further information or analysis, please let me know. I would be happy to work with you and house and senate staff to further review these statutes and help determine if clarifying legislation is needed. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Janet Rahm
Deputy Revisor for Editing

Minnesota Legislature Office of the Revisor of Statutes

06 - 0045

To: Honorable Linda Higgins, Chair
Senate Committee on State and Local Government Operations
Honorable Kathy Tinglestad, Chair
House Committee on Governmental Operations and Veterans Affairs

From: Craig E. Lindeke, Senior Assistant Revisor of Statutes

Date: December 15, 2005

Subject: Requirements for Public Notice

Laws 2004, chapter 182, section 32, required the revisor of statutes to compile a list of "all statutes that require publication of public notices" and to provide that list to the chairs of the government operations committees in the house and the senate.

A search of Minnesota Statutes has resulted in three lists, as follows: (1) statutes requiring publication in legal, official, or other newspapers; (2) statutes requiring public notice but not making it clear how the notice is to be given; and (3) statutes requiring publication in the State Register or an official state Web site.

(1) The following statutes require publication of notice in legal, official, or other newspapers:

- 13D.04, subdivision 2
- 16B.282, subdivision 2
- 17.56, subdivision 3
- 17A.06, subdivision 3
