INTERSTATE COMMISSION FOR JUVENILES

Serving Juveniles While Protecting Communities

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Interstate Commission for Juveniles, the governing body of the Interstate Compact for Juveniles, through means of joint and cooperative action among the compacting states, preserves child welfare and promotes public safety interests of citizens, including victims of juvenile offenders, by providing enhanced accountability, enforcement, visibility, and communication in the return of juveniles who have left their state of residence without permission and in the cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles who travel or relocate across state lines.

VISION STATEMENT:

The Interstate Commission for Juveniles will promote public safety, victims' rights, and juvenile accountability that is balanced with safeguarding those juveniles.

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

Fiscal Year 2015 marks another year of progress for the Interstate Commission for Juveniles. The dedication of the Commission's committees and regions to reaching the goals set forth in the 2013-2016 Strategic Initiatives is evident in the long list of accomplishments outlined in this report. I am honored to serve alongside the individuals comprising this organization who have volunteered their time and knowledge to ensure ICJ embodies its vision. Without such dedication by its members, the success of the Commission would not be possible.

This year, the Executive Committee introduced the Performance Measurement Plan as defined in the strategic initiatives. Conclusions from its results will not only ensure states are operating according to ICJ policies and procedures, but identify the Commission's strengths and weaknesses. Additionally, for the last two years, the Rules Committee diligently worked to improve clarity and consistency of ICJ Rules. As their hard work comes to fruition in this rule-making year, I applaud the committee's commitment to the Commission's goals and am thankful for their efforts. With knowledge gained from the Performance Measurement Plan and stronger, more stable rules, I look forward to seeing the Commission advance in the coming years.

The Training, Education and Public Relations Committee continues to develop and provide training on Rules, JIDS and Compact procedures. To improve on the delivery of nationwide training, the committee is developing self-paced training using interactive software that offers a better and more engaging learning experience for understanding Rules and JIDS. Likewise, the Information Technology Committee made helpful changes to the ICJ Forms and processes to assist Compact staff in their day-to-day work.

Also new this year is the ICJ Leadership Award. Implemented by the Executive Committee, the award recognizes an individual who exhibits outstanding leadership and dedication to ICJ. The first ICJ Leadership Award will be announced at the 2015 Annual Business Meeting.

The Interstate Commission for Juveniles continues to develop and become an integral part of the juvenile justice system. With Commission members who volunteer to run for office, serve on committees, and conduct training around the country, as well as the dedication and skills of the national office staff, we have the tools we need to continue to move forward. I am proud to be a part of our mission to protect public safety and provide services to the juveniles of our country.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Pendergast Chair, Interstate Commission for Juveniles

ANNUAL RECAP

The 2014 Annual Business Meeting (ABM) in Charleston, SC, presented the opportunity to consider rule changes, strategize and network, and conduct trainings. The meeting began with a welcoming speech from Angie Rita, Deputy Director of the Community Services Division for South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice. Following Director Rita's engaging address, the committee chairs and regional representatives reported on their activities and accomplishments for the year.

Following the Committee and Region reports, Director Chris Newlin, ICJ's Ex Officio representative from the National Children's Advocacy center, led a panel discussion on human trafficking and its impact on ICJ. Nationally recognized in their field, the panelists included Robert Bittner, Border Enforcement with the Department of Homeland Security, Maureen Blaha, Executive Director of the National Runaway Safeline, Pamela Gregory, Victims Specialist with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Bradley Myles, Executive Director of the Polaris Project, and Judge William Voy, Family Division Judge with the Clark County District Court in Nevada. The panelists shared their thoughts and experience with human trafficking cases and answered questions from the audience.

While this was not a rule-making year, the Rules Committee presented five rules for the commission to consider as clean up, four of which were approved. The AAICPC/ICJ MOU Work Group finalized eight best practice case scenarios for dealing with dual jurisdiction cases and is now developing a guidebook for Compact Offices and ICPC staff to use as reference.

The Commission approved the Finance Committee's recommendation to modify the dues structure, using three years of JIDS transaction data and the most recent U. S. Census population estimates. Starting in fiscal year 2018, dues tiers will be based on State's average transaction data for FY 14, FY 15 and FY 16. The recalculation and restructuring will occur every five years.

The Commission elected Officers to serve a one year term. Officers elected were: Patrick J. Pendergast (AL) Chair, Anne Connor (NV) Vice-Chair, and Phil Cox (OR) Treasurer. The meeting concluded with an announcement of the next Annual Meeting held August 24–26, 2015 in Madison, Wisconsin.

After a successful and productive Annual Business Meeting, the Commissions' committees and regions resumed their work. The Compliance Committee met to discuss compliance issues and recommended disciplinary action to the Executive Committee against the State of Illinois. Illinois avoided a significant fine by immediately implementing a corrective action plan. In the fall of 2015, the Committee will consider the results of the first performance measurement assessment and the process for future compliance reviews.

The Training, Education and Public Relations Committee focused on expanding training offerings and enhancing the learner experience. This includes new on-demand offerings and topic-based trainings on returns, JIDS and judicial concerns. Additionally, the Committee updated existing training materials to accurately reflect ICJ Rules. Trainers led on-site workshops for the American Probation and Parole Association and the Georgia Judicial Conference. The Committee also established a Toolkit for Judges to provide quick and easy access to information needed by judges, attorneys and other legal professionals involved with ICJ.

The Information Technology Committee fulfilled its goal to suspend JIDS enhancements to focus on performance, including corrections to Custom Reports, maintenance to the database, and an increase in CPU resources. A thorough review of ICJ Forms led to modifications to four forms.

PERFORMANCE
MEASUREMENT
INFORMATION AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Due to automating the Compact process, the Commission now has the necessary information to benchmark and set compliance performance goals. The first performance measurement assessment in the history of the compact started this year. It measured each state's ability to comply with an established set of six standards representing the Commission rules.

Overall, the results of the assessment are positive. States are performing well with eighty percent of the standards measured. One standard that is problematic for states is complying with the ninety-day quarterly progress report. The Compliance Committee will evaluate the outcomes from the first year of measuring states performance and make recommendations for future years.

LOOKING AHEAD TO FISCAL YEAR 2016

With a new Performance Measurement Plan in place, ensuring compliance with rules and ICJ policies and procedures will be a priority in FY2016.

Similarly, the signification number of potential amendments to the ICJ Rules makes training for compact offices and field staff an important task for the Commission. Likewise, JIDS will also see significant modifications and the Information Technology Committee will work hard to ensure a smooth transition. The Finance Committee will continue to monitor the ICJ budget and investment fund and will make necessary adjustments as costs associated with the 2016 Annual Business Meeting in Boston, Massachusetts called for a reallocating of funds. With so many changes introduced, FY2016 will likely be a year to stabilize and begin plans for a next phase of strategic planning.

Strategic Initiatives, 2013–2016

- 1. Enhance both compliance and enforcement.
- 2. Minimize changes to the rules and increase their understanding.
- 3. Refine processes with stabilization of rules and forms, along with enhancing features of JIDS.
- Enhance state ICJ compact office staff participation in decisionmaking, meetings, missions, and goals.
- 5. Enhance training and promote awareness of ICJ.

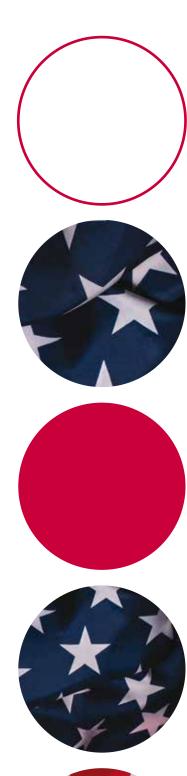

The Commission maintains a healthy reserve fund of $1,494,165. The long-term investment fund approved in fiscal year 2014 is proving beneficial with a gain of 4.83 percent. The Commission finished the fiscal year 2015 nine percent under budget and $400,250 in the long-term investment fund.

ARTICLE VIII, FINANCE, SECTION D

The Interstate Commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the Interstate Commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its by-laws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the Interstate Commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the Interstate Commission.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Governing Board The Council of State Governments Lexington, Kentucky

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Council of State Governments (a nonprofit organization, the Council), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the ericumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Council as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. The combining statements of financial position and activities, and the schedules of amounts due to and due from managed organizations are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. The combining information on pages 16 through 19 is presented for purposes of additional analysis rather than to present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the individual departments the Council. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated December 10, 2014 on our consideration of the Council's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Council's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

ANNUAL STATISTICS

Annual statistics show how an organization operates in any given year. Statistics on juvenile movement gathered for this report were attained from the Juvenile Interstate Data System (JIDS). A comprehensive and accurate review of returns and transfers is only possible if JIDS is used to document each juvenile case correctly. FY2015 saw 1,870 returns and 6,933 transfers. In addition, 131 airport supervision requests were met in FY2015.

States issued 4,604 travel permits in FY2015. Probationers represent 84 percent (3,860) of travel permits issued, while parolees represent 16 percent (744).

Comparison Data: Returns and Transfers

The returns comparison chart below illustrates runaways, escapees, absconders, and accused delinquents processed over the past three fiscal years. In previous years, states reported returns. In FY2015, all data came strictly from JIDS.

Parole transfers increased 15 percent from FY2014, with 826 cases referred. Of the total parole transfers, 15.74 percent, or 130 cases, were sex-offender related. This is a slight decrease from 17 percent in the previous fiscal year.

Supervision Comparison for fiscal years 2013, 2014 and 2015

In FY2015, probation transfers jumped 30 percent from the previous fiscal year, for a total of 6,107 transfers sent/received. Of the total probation transfers, 637 were for sex-offense related cases, or 10.43 percent. This is modest increase from 8.27 percent in
