2015 - 2016 Minnesota Campaign Finance Summary

The Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board is charged with collecting campaign finance disclosure reports from the state office candidates, political party units, political committees and funds, independent expenditure committees and funds, and ballot question committees and funds that are regulated by Minnesota Statutes Chapter 10A. This summary of campaign finance information is derived from the reports filed with the Board during 2015 and 2016, and provides condensed information on financial activity and status at the end of 2016 as reported by each candidate, party unit, and committee or fund. Additionally, this summary provides a comprehensive listing of all major donors during the two-year period with the amount of each contribution. The summary also provides a complete listing of the independent expenditures made for and against candidates in 2016.

Contribution and spending limits apply to a two-year period of time. The two-year periods are referred to as election cycle segments. Each segment contains one odd-numbered non-election year and one even-numbered election year. However, while contribution and expenditure limits apply to a two-year segment, the reporting of campaign finance activity is based on a calendar year. The information for each committee or fund in the summary is provided for calendar years 2015 and 2016.

The 2015-2016 election cycle segment contained the 2016 general election at which state senate, state house of representatives, and select judicial offices were up for election. There was one constitutional amendment ballot question before the voters on the subject of how legislative compensation pay is determined. No ballot question expenditures relating to the ballot question were reported.

Reports were filed by the principal campaign committees of 134 senate candidates for 67 senate seats, 265 house of representatives candidates for 134 house of representatives seats, 15 candidates for 11 judicial seats up for election, and 15 candidates in five special elections to fill a vacancy in office. The summary includes indicators that identify the senate and house of representatives candidates who won primary and general elections. Additionally, this summary includes data supplied by 327 political party units and 315 political committees and funds registered with the Board.

Independent expenditure political committees and funds and ballot question committees and funds are permitted to accept corporate and other unregistered association contributions but are limited to making independent expenditures, making ballot question expenditures, and contributing to other independent expenditure and ballot question committees and funds. This summary includes reported information for 57 independent expenditure committees and funds and 4 ballot question committees and funds.

The information provided for each committee or fund includes total contributions received, total contributions made, total expenditures, beginning and ending cash balances, and, if applicable, the total amount of public subsidy payments received. Outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, and disbursements other than campaign expenditures are not itemized in the summary but are reflected in the totals reported in the summary. The data filed in campaign finance reports generally has not been verified or audited by the Board.

Over the years 2015 and 2016, senate candidates who filed for office reported receiving $3,197,243 from individual contributors, $822,896 from political committees and funds, $707,751 from political parties, and $275,256 from lobbyists. Public subsidy payments to senate candidates totaled $1,089,385. House candidates who filed for office reported receiving $5,178,843 from individual contributors, $1,222,645 from political committees and funds, $790,152 from political parties, and $331,892 from lobbyists. Public subsidy payments to house of representatives candidates totaled $1,072,675. A total of $220,081 in receipts was reported received by 15 judicial candidates who filed for office.

Not included in the above totals are committees of candidates who did not file for office. Those committees for constitutional office candidates reported receiving $1,247,180 in receipts and making total expenditures of $569,780. Legislative and judicial candidates who did not file for office reported receiving $725,033 in receipts and making $1,156,957 in total expenditures

The following is a summary of contributions of $500 or more received in the 2015-2016 election cycle segment by candidates running for office. State senate candidates received 2,645 donations totaling $2,111,054 (42% of the total contributions received by senate candidates in 2015 and 2016). House candidates received 3,613 donations totaling $2,742,776 (37% of the total contributions received by house candidates in 2015 and 2016). Judicial candidates received 72 donations totaling $120,098 (57% of the total contributions received by judicial candidates in 2015 and 2016). A listing of the candidate committees that received contributions in aggregate of $500 or more and the source of those contributions begins on page 114.

Most candidates voluntarily agree to limit expenditures in order to receive public subsidies. These subsidies include direct payments to eligible candidates during election years and the right to participate in the Political Contribution Refund (PCR) program. Agreements to abide by spending limits in order to receive public subsidies were signed by 92% of registered candidates filing for office. A total of $2,162,062 in public subsidy was distributed to state senate and house of representatives candidates for the 2016 election. See page 6 for a breakdown of public subsidy by office.

Campaign expenditures are made for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate and apply toward the expenditure limit applicable to candidates who signed a public subsidy agreement. In the 2015-2016 election cycle segment, campaign expenditures for state senate candidates who filed for office totaled $5,149,797. House candidate campaign expenditures for candidates who filed for office totaled $6,826,503.

Reports filed by 327 political party units during the 2015-2016 election cycle segment disclosed receipt of contributions totaling $32,819,479 from which they made contributions of $10,844,823 to state candidate committees, political party units, and other political committees and funds, and $7,411,296 in independent expenditures. Information on political party units starts on page 172.

The 315 political committees and funds (not including independent expenditure committees and funds) reported receiving $34,390,597 in contributions from which they made contributions of $18,740,907 to state candidate committees, political party units, and other political committees and funds and $2,121,003 in independent expenditures. Information on political committees and funds starts on page 198.

The 57 independent expenditure committees and funds received cash contributions totaling $22,807,026, contributed $6,943,559 to other independent expenditure committees and funds, and made independent expenditures of $11,850,576 during 2015 and 2016. Information on independent expenditure committees and funds starts on page 227.

During the 2015 and 2016 election cycle segment, 41% of all independent expenditures were made to influence state senate races and 59% were made to influence races for the house of representatives. An itemization of the expenditures made for and against candidates during the election cycle segment begins on page 248.

Multicandidate Political Party Expenditures in 2015 - 2016

Ten percent of the amount designated on a state income or property tax return for a political party is paid to the state central committee of that party. The amount that political parties receive from the state public subsidy program must be deposited in a separate bank account and used only for multicandidate political party expenditures as defined in statute.* The following chart provides the amount paid to the central committee of each qualified political party, and the multicandidate political party expenditures made by the party in 2015 and 2016.
