I. OVERVIEW AND YEAR IN REVIEW

Rule 1.10, Minnesota Rules of the Client Security Board (MRCSB), provides:

At least once a year and at such other times as the Supreme Court may order, the Board shall file with the Court a written report reviewing in detail the administration of the fund, its operation, its assets and liabilities.

This eleventh annual report of the Minnesota Client Security Board covers the Board's current fiscal year, which began July 1, 1997, and ended on June 30, 1998.

The major theme for this past year has been finances. Last year in its Annual Report, the Board indicated it would be reviewing its funding needs this year and reporting to the Court. That process occurred, albeit in a somewhat different manner than anticipated. In August 1997, the Court reallocated $7 from the Board's portion of the attorney registration fee (which had been $20/per attorney/per year) for one year in favor of the Board on Continuing Legal Education. The Client Security Board was then asked to accelerate its internal funding review and present a report and recommendations to the Court by January 1, 1998, which the Board did (Appendix 1; A. 1, with exhibits). In that report, the Board recommended that the Court reset the CSB annual assessment at $15/per attorney/per year. Following a hearing before the Court on April 14, by order dated May 22, 1998 (Appendix 2; A. 36), the Court accepted the Board's recommendation to reduce the assessment, but placed the annual amount at $17/per attorney. The Court also instructed the Board to report to the Court if the Fund goes below $1.5-million, or if it exceeds $2.5-million.

The loss of approximately $55,000 in annual income is not expected to have a significant short-term effect on the Board's ability to pay claims fully and promptly. The Board's revised FY99 budget anticipates $720,000 in claims for the coming year, which will represent the highest payout amount in the Board's eleven-year history. Even with the reduction in income, the Board should be able to handle this volume and still maintain a balance of over $1.5-million. Obviously, if additional (and as yet unknown) claims of substantial amounts are received, the loss of any income will be felt.

In addition to the significant amount of time and energy expended on the issue of the Board's financial health, a busy year of claims resolution still took place. After its sixth and final meeting of the year in June 1998, the Board had approved 35 claims this year against 9 former attorneys in the total amount of $336,221.¹ In the eleven years of the Board's operation, the Board has approved 241 claims and paid out $2,914,420 against 73 different lawyers (Appendix 7; A. 45). The Board anticipates that 30 claims will still be pending before the Board following its final meeting; the oldest remaining claim will have been pending less than nine months.

Following each meeting, the Board issues a press release pursuant to the Board's policy. This past year, the Board began posting its press releases on the Board's internet website as well, in the hopes that the public better will be able to obtain information about the Board's activities. The site also now contains copies of articles about the Board, as well as the Board's rules, claim form, brochure, staff directory and a copy of the latest annual report (see

Carlton Moe - 1 claim	$89,325
Norman Gurstel - 15 claims	$74,283
Gerald (Jay) McNabb - 3 claims	$59,746
Helen Dovolis - 10 claims	$47,551
Max Ruttger - 1 claim	$25,678
Richard Vinitzky - 2 claims	$20,000
Neil Heikkila - 1 claim	$17,728
Michael Randall - 1 claim	$ 1,208
Jeanne Chacon - 1 claim	$ 700

Appendix 3; A. 40, which is a copy of the Board's internet website homepage²). The Board anticipates adding soon to the website a list of attorneys against whom claims have been approved, similar to that in Appendix 7, which will be updated regularly.

At its first meeting of the current year, the Board elected Kim Buechel Mesun as its new chair, to replace Bailey Blethen, whose term on the Board had expired. Also this year Richard Diamond joined the Board as a new lawyer member. A complete list of all current and former Board chairs and members is at Appendix 4; A. 41. Finally, as reported in last year's annual report, Edward Cleary became the Board's Director effective July 28, 1997. In addition to his duties as Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility, Mr. Cleary has taken an active role with the Client Security Board as well.

II. THE CLIENT SECURITY BOARD AND ITS PROCEDURES

Board Members. As of June 30, 1998, the following individuals served on the Board:

Name	Location	Term Expires
Kim Buechel Mesun, Chair	St. Paul	June 30, 1999
Sister Mary Madonna Ashton	St. Paul	June 30, 1998
Daniel L. Bowles	Bloomington	June 30, 2000
Richard I. Diamond	Minneapolis	June 30, 2000
Timothy J. Kuntz	South St. Paul	June 30, 1999
Beverly K. McKinnell	St. Paul	June 30, 1999
Daniel L. Rust	Crookston	June 30, 2001

As noted above, Ms. Mesun was elected as the Board's fourth chair at the Board's first meeting of the current year. Ms. Mesun is an Assistant Attorney General and is chair of the MSBA public lawyers section. Mr. Diamond was appointed to replace departed Board member Bailey Blethen. Mr. Diamond is an attorney in private practice in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. He recently attended, on behalf of the Board, the ABA's National Client Protection Forum in Montreal, Canada.

For the second year in a row, the Board will lose one of its two public members. Sister Mary Madonna Ashton completed her second full term on the Board on June 30. Her regular presence and common sense approach will be missed by the Board in the future. A new public member will be appointed by the Court to join Ms. McKinnell, who is the Board's other public member. Mr. Rust's first term also ended this year, but he is eligible for reappointment and was recommended by the MSBA for a second term and recently reappointed by the Court. He is, at present, the Board's only outstate member. Also during the past year, Mr. Bowles was reappointed to a second term on the Board.

Also for the second consecutive year, the Board has a new liaison justice on the Supreme Court. Chief Justice Blatz had been selected only last year as the Board's liaison. Upon her appointment to Chief Justice, Justice Blatz chose Justice Edward Stringer to become the Client Security Board's new liaison justice. He has already exhibited a keen interest in the Board's activities and it is expected that the Board's relationship with the Court will continue uninterrupted.

Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board. The Board's rules were last amended effective July 1, 1995, and underwent no changes in the past year. No changes presently are anticipated this coming year either. The Board's maximum payment per claim remains at $100,000, with no limit on the aggregate amount payable on behalf of an attorney.

Funding and Budget Procedures. As noted above, the Board's funding requirements and budget were major items of concern this past year. The Board prepares an annual budget which is presented for approval to the Supreme Court. The Board's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30. The Board's FY99 budget was recently approved by the Court. That budget was based upon the assumption that the Court would lower the Board's assessment to $15/per attorney/per year. Because the Court in fact set the annual amount at $17, recently the Board submitted a revised budget.

Because of the reallocation of part of the Board's assessment, this year the assessment will generate only approximately $237,000. The Board also anticipates receiving approximately $102,000 in investment income and $27,000 in restitution payments from lawyers on whose behalf claims have been paid. The Board does not handle any funds directly or the investment of the Fund. The assessment is collected through the Office of Attorney Registration and placed into a segregated fund within the State Treasury.

The Board's budget is prepared and filed publicly in March of each year. As noted, the FY99 budget was recently approved by the Supreme Court. Overall, the Board has budgeted $764,500 in total expenditures for next year, which represents a substantial increase for the second year in a row. Based upon the information presently available to the Board concerning pending claims or known potential claims, $720,000 has been budgeted for claims payment next year. If met, this figure will represent the largest amount of payouts in the history of the Board. The Board has also approved an increase in the rates paid to the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility for staff services. This is the first adjustment in the staff rates since the creation of the Board in 1986, but should not dramatically affect the Board's overall budget.

Last year, the Board budgeted $16,500 for services to build a new computer data base for the Board to better maintain records and, hopefully, track trends in claims and the types of attorneys who generate them. This project is nearing completion and only a small additional amount has been budgeted for the coming year.

Administrative Staff. Since the Board's inception in 1986, the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility has provided staff services to the Client Security Board. Edward Cleary became Director of the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility and the Client Security Board this year. Martin Cole and paralegal Patricia Jorgensen continue to handle most daily operations for the Board, as they have for several years. Mr. Cole has recently been elected as a director-at-large of the National Client Protection Organization, which should help ensure that the Board remains up-to-date with any national developments in the client protection area. Timothy Burke was added to the staff as an Assistant Director this year and will take on some investigative duties and help oversee the Attorney General's collections efforts for the Board. Despite the rate increase noted above, administrative costs continue to be kept to a minimum. The Board has budgeted approximately $40,500 next year for staff services.

The Minnesota Attorney General provides legal services to the Client Security Board in enforcing its subrogation rights against attorneys on whose behalf the Board has paid claims, or against any third persons from whom payments may be legally obtained. Martha Casserly is the manager of the Attorney General's collections litigation division. She and Assistant Attorney General Janette Brimmer and their staff provide outstanding representation for the Board. The Board pays no attorney's fees for this representation, but is responsible only for direct costs of collection efforts and litigation. This past year, payments from 15 former attorneys were received. The total amount anticipated this year will be $27,000. Also this past year, several complicated civil matters were handled by the Attorney General for the Board, including a significant determination that a disbarred attorney, in some circumstances, may be collaterally estopped from relitigating the findings from a lawyer disciplinary proceeding in a subsequent civil action brought by the Board.³

One of the issues discussed by the Board this year was aggressive collection efforts to ensure repayment to the Fund by former attorneys. As a part of this process, the Board, upon the recommendation of the Attorney General's Office, negotiated a contract with Minnesota Collections Enterprise (MCE), an agency created to assist government agencies in their collection work. Although the Attorney General will continue to handle most matters for the Board that appear capable of prompt resolution, other matters will be referred to MCE to pursue.

Claims Procedure. Claims are initiated by submitting the claim to the Director's Office on forms approved by the Board. Claimants are provided the forms and a brochure to help explain the process. The claim form, and copies of the Board's rules are also available via the internet at the Board's website. The respondent attorney is provided an opportunity to respond in writing, although frequently no response is received. The Board also has access to all lawyer disciplinary files, from which considerable information is often obtained.

The rules provide that claimants are expected to pursue reasonably available civil remedies. In order to avoid hardship and provide prompt claim resolution and payment, the Board occasionally exercises its discretion by waiving this requirement when it is already known that the Attorney General will be pursuing litigation against the attorney under the Board's subrogation rights. In most cases, attorney disciplinary proceedings will have been completed before any Client Security payment is made. The Board generally relies upon findings made in related lawyer disciplinary action concerning misappropriation, or in related civil or criminal cases whenever possible.

If a claim is denied, the claimant is notified in writing of the Board's determination and reasoning. The claimant has the right to request reconsideration and a discretionary meeting with the Board, so that all claimants have a full opportunity to present the merits of their claim.

III. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Despite a substantial number of claims having been filed this past year, the Board remains quite current with its workload. With a more settled situation as to leadership and funding in place as the new fiscal year begins, the Board hopes to turn its full attention to its core function of resolving claims promptly and paying victims of lawyer theft to the fullest possible amount.

For Registration of Attorneys

REPORT OF THE
CLIENT SECURITY BOARD

BACKGROUND

The Minnesota Client Security Board (CSB) currently receives $20 per year per attorney as part of the attorney registration fee. This assessment began in 1993, following a recommendation from the MSBA Client Protection Committee and a subsequent petition from the MSBA. Exhibits 1 and 2. As part of the Court's December 3, 1993, Order, the Board was instructed to report to the Court when the balance in the Fund reached $1.5 million. Exhibit 3. This amount was projected to be achieved at the end of FY97 (the Board's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30, so FY97 ran through June 30, 1997). This was reported to the Court. Exhibit 4. No action was taken at that time.

When the Board prepared its budget for FY98, which was presented to the Court in May 1997, the Board again reported that the balance in the Fund exceeded $1.5 million, Exhibit 5, and also orally informed the court that projections through FY99 indicated that the balance may reach $2 million by that time. The Board informed the Court that it intended to conduct a complete review of the assessment and the Board's financial needs, and to report to the Court with any recommendations for change when next year's budget is presented in March 1998.

The Court, on August 6, 1997, reallocated $7 per attorney from the CSB to the Board on Continuing Legal Education on a one-year basis, in order to assist that Board with a temporary financial need. Exhibit 6. In a subsequent meeting with the Chief Justice, the CSB agreed to accelerate its review of its assessment needs in order to present this report to the Court before January 1998.

The Board has reviewed carefully various budget proposals for the upcoming two years, based upon various possible annual assessment amounts (i.e., $10 per attorney per year, $13, $15 and $20), using identical average expenditures (based upon five-year averages for claims paid and administrative expenses). The Board also compared Minnesota's Client Security Fund assessment, claims procedures and history with that of several other states' client protection funds (basically from three types of states: states with large client protection programs such as New York and California, neighboring states such as Wisconsin and Iowa, and states with similar lawyer populations such as Virginia and Missouri) to ensure itself that our Fund balance, maximum payment per claim, annual assessment and claims experience are not inconsistent with those of other states.

Based upon this review, the Board makes to the Court the following:

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. The portion of the attorney registration fee, or annual assessment, which the Board receives, should be set at $15 per attorney per year, beginning July 1, 1998.
2. The Court should establish parameters for the Fund balance of $1.5 million and $2.5 million.
 - a. If the Fund balance remains within those parameters, the $15 assessment would remain in effect from year-to-year without any further action or order from the Court or Board;
 - b. If the Fund balance goes below $1.5 million or above $2.5 million, then the Board will make recommendations for change.
3. If the Fund remains within the established parameters, the Board nevertheless will review the assessment in five years to ensure its continued appropriateness.

4. If the current $100,000 maximum award per claim is amended, the Board would review whether a $15 assessment remains appropriate.

DISCUSSION

The Board is keenly aware of its obligations to maintain a balance between the competing policies of maintaining a fund sufficient to ensure the public that any major defalcations could be covered by the Board without delay (such as would be necessary should additional funds be needed), and not unnecessarily charging the lawyers of Minnesota through an ever-increasing attorney registration fee. The Board has tried to create a middle ground with this current proposal.

The concept and amount of the parameters were decided following careful discussion. The MSBA's Client Protection Committee report in 1993 recommended a Fund balance of $2.5 million as being appropriate. The Court's subsequent Order indicated that $1.5 million was also an appropriate Fund balance. Thus, although these numbers have not been linked as high/low parameters before, both numbers have been supported previously by sources outside the Board as being reasonable balances for the Fund. With the Fund's current balance being approximately halfway between these two figures, the Board believes they represent an equal and reasonable standard deviation from where the Fund is currently. The Board does not believe it is wise to constantly revisit the issue of funding unless absolutely necessary, thus the idea of not reconsidering funding levels to see if the assessment and the parameters remain valid until after five years.

The Board then tried to determine what level of assessment would best keep the Fund balance approximately where it is at present: roughly half-way between the two parameters. Based upon an "average" year (which does not, in fact, ever occur in the area of lawyer theft; but here using five-year averages for amount of claims paid and administrative expenses), the Board determined that $15 per attorney per year will most likely establish and maintain that balance. If it does not, due to a larger or smaller than anticipated number of claims, or a change in the Board's maximum payment, then the Board retains the ability to make recommendations to the Court even before the five-year period expires.

The Client Security Board does not believe the above recommendations require a hearing before the Supreme Court. If the Court prefers a formal petition, followed by a comment period and hearing, then the Board will do so. Otherwise, it shall await further direction from the Court.

CLIENT PROTECTION COMMITTEE REPORT

I.

Introduction

The Client Protection Committee was formed following the MSBA 1991 Convention based on a recommendation of the Minnesota Supreme Court that a study be made of proposed permanent financing for the Client Security Fund. In establishing the Committee the MSBA Board of Governors authorized a broad scope of inquiry to include related issues such as:

- Consideration of methods to prevent defalcations from lawyer trust accounts;
- A study of the merits of having the Client Security Fund serve as an insurer of last resort for attorney malpractice;
- A review of the advisability of retaining a maximum limitation on payments made by the Client Security Board.

Committee members appointed by then-President Robert Monson represented a cross-section of the Bar, and involved the judiciary, state legislature, both large and small firm private practice, corporate counsel, and representation from the Client Security Board itself. The Committee members include the following:

Judge Terry Dempsey	Justice Peter Popovich
Bert Greener	Allen Saeks
Mary Eichhorn-Hicks	Donald Weinke
Melvin Orenstein

Merritt Marquardt, Chair
Mary Jo Ruff, MSBA Staff

The Committee has held 11 meetings and considered a wide range of issues relating to lawyer defalcation and client security. Resources available to the Committee included ABA reports and study findings, as well as published information of the Client Security Board in its operation as a function of the Minnesota Supreme Court. Interviews for background on the issues were conducted with the following:

II.

History of the Client Security Fund

The Client Security Fund was established by the MSBA in 1963 in response to a growing recognition by the Bar that certain issues of professional responsibility must be addressed by the professional organization of lawyers. In 1987 the administrative functions of the Fund were assumed by the Minnesota Supreme Court and the Client Security Board was formed to operate under the Court's jurisdiction. It has remained a part of Supreme Court operations since that time.

In an effort to establish a solid financial base and reserve for its operations, the Client Security Board in 1990 requested that the Court make a permanent $25 annual assessment to be imposed as part of the practice fee upon all licensed attorneys in the state. The MSBA responded with a counter-proposal for a one-time assessment of $50. The Supreme Court ordered an annual assessment of $20 for three years, and asked the Client Security Board and the MSBA to explore ways of permanently financing the Fund.

The Client Security Fund at present has approximately $1 million in reserves. During the past six years of operation the Board has paid 114 claims totaling over $1.5 million. The Board has published an Annual Report of its activities for each fiscal year of its existence. Its most recent report is attached as Exhibit "A." It is noted in the Report that in fiscal year 1992 claims declined in dollar amount to $160,000 from the previous year's average of approximately $250,000. The cause of the decline is not certain, but the Board believes that vigorous and prompt disciplinary action may well be a factor:

The Board also maintains a policy of urging criminal prosecution against all lawyers who are found to have converted client trust funds. Claims are processed to completion in an average of 3-6 months unless the proceedings before the Lawyers Board of Professional Responsibility are delayed, or there is third party litigation pending. After five years of existence, the Board is conducting a review of its rules and expects to present its recommendations to the Supreme Court by the end of fiscal 1993.

In March of 1992, in response to a legislative request concerning claims denied by the Board, the Board prepared a table indicating the types of claims denied and the reasons therefor. A copy of that table is attached as Exhibit "B."

The Board also has prepared a table of reported client losses from July 1, 1987 through June 15, 1990, by area of law, as well as the awards or reimbursement by the Board for the same period of time. A copy is attached as Exhibit "C."

III.

Issues

In the preparation of this Report the Client Protection Committee reviewed the cause of what appears to be an increased incidence of lawyer theft throughout the country. Members of the Bar have speculated that the increased use of drugs and alcohol, combined with the intense pressures of modern practice, are a basis for the increase.

Members of the Client Security Board and its staff interviewed by the Committee were unable to provide any clear basis for these conclusions since there is no pattern which emerges from the five year experience of the Board. It appears that smaller claims, such as unearned retainer claims, generally are a result of lawyers having chemical dependency problems. However, the more substantial losses such as the Flanagan and Sampson cases usually go by default and there is no opportunity to develop the reasons which lead these lawyers to convert their clients' trust funds. A number of claims come about as a result of client investments with lawyers where the investments do poorly, and the lawyer in charge of the investment converts the available funds purely as a result of economic pressure.

The MSBA makes an annual contribution to "Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers." This private organization is concerned with chemically dependent lawyers. Approximately a year ago the MSBA filed a petition with the Supreme Court which would have authorized an assessment on lawyers for the purpose of establishing an assistance program addressing various emotional, financial, family and personal problems suffered by lawyers. That petition was denied.

A. Funding Sources

· Lawyer Assessments

The Client Security fund is currently maintained by an assessment of $100 on all newly admitted lawyers payable in two payments over four years as part of the annual registration fee and $20 per year upon all other lawyers licensed to practice in the state. The recent assessment was imposed by the Supreme Court in 1990 and remains effective through the 1992-93 fiscal year. At present the Fund reserve is slightly under $1 million.

A persuasive argument was made before the committee by Judge John Stanoch and Kim Mesun representing the MSBA Public Law Section that lawyers not engaged in private practice and generally employed by the public sector should be exempt from the assessment. However, the Committee believes that lawyer defalcation and the resultant injured client are a responsibility of the entire legal profession and that all licensed attorneys, regardless of the nature of their practice, should participate in the Court-mandated resolution of this problem. Indeed, the principle that "honest" lawyers must contribute to a fund to reimburse victims of "dishonest" lawyers is a concomitant of that belief. If the profession is willing to accept that principle it makes little sense to distinguish between in-house lawyers and public lawyers. Additionally, the administrative burden of keeping track of public lawyers who move into private practice and private lawyers who move into the public area presents an administrative burden for the Court. The Committee believes that the $20 per year assessment does not impose an undue financial burden on any lawyer, but regardless of that consideration, it considers the more compelling argument for an assessment to be the collective professional responsibility of all lawyers by reason of their unique role and status in maintaining the orderly governance of society.

As indicated in the 1990 Client Protection Fund Survey conducted by the ABA [Attachment "A"], eighteen state funds are capitalized by Supreme Court mandatory assessment. The ABA Study states, "This method of funding guarantees a reliable source of income to provide public information programs, adequate staffing, and, most importantly, the goal of full reimbursement. Mandatory assessment is evidence of the highest commitment to client protection" [§IV. p.iv].

The Committee also believes that lawyers newly admitted to the Bar should be assessed in the same manner as existing members of the Bar. At present the assessment schedule requires that new lawyers pay $50 their first year following admission, nothing in years two and three, and $50 again in the fourth year, after which they pay $20 each year. This arrangement was intended to represent an initial $100 assessment for new members and was designed to establish a parity with long-standing members of the Bar.

Members of the Client Security Board and their support staff strongly endorse the concept of a permanent assessment. Accordingly, the Committee recommends that a permanent annual assessment of $20 be established, subject to periodic review by the Court to ensure that the amount is adequate to both satisfy the historic level of claims while at the same time build a reasonable reserve for periods of extraordinary activity. Considerations which should enter into the Court's review include the Board's actual claims experience, the public's perception of a sufficient amount of money in the Fund to maintain the public's confidence in the protection provided by the legal profession, and the expedience with which the Court could respond to a set of major multiple claims which might conceivably otherwise drain the Fund of all its assets. A further consideration might properly be to what extent, as a policy matter, victims of lawyer theft should be compensated.

A reserve of $2.5 million is considered by the Committee to be a proper target and an amount which duly reflects the above considerations. It is based upon a factor of ten times the annual amount of claims generally experienced by the Board during its six-year history. The Committee also believes that the MSBA and the Court should properly revisit the issue of the amount of reserve at such time as it has reached the recommended $2.5 million level.

• Bonding and Insurance

The Committee conducted an extensive review regarding the use of insurance and fidelity bonds as a means of providing financial resources for the Client Security Fund. Representatives of Marsh & McLennan presented various alternatives of coverage:

• A Bar association indemnity bond operating on the principle of reinsurance by reimbursement of the Client Security Fund in the event of theft. Based on a per-occurrence concept, this instrument would contain an aggregate limit.

• An excess bond covering the Fund for catastrophic circumstances should the entire reserve be depleted.

• Fidelity coverage obtained by the individual lawyer through a committee or the MSBA, protecting the law firm and the client, with appropriate deductible limits.

The Committee also studied a proposal of Frank B. Hall & Company, a Boston insurance firm, which suggested mandatory bonding and reinsurance as a supplement to the existing mandatory assessment. Although the proposal included a 5% rebate for corollary malpractice insurance, the $200 annual premium was viewed as prohibitive regardless of whether the malpractice rebate feature was utilized by most lawyers.

In general, the Committee was not satisfied that either fidelity bonds or insurance represented viable cost-effective alternatives to the existing assessment program. The comparative premium cost quotations for either bonding or insurance were simply not competitive with the $20 annual assessment as proposed, nor would such premiums provide the flexibility and the reserve-building capacity as discussed above.

Further, an insurance program tied to broad class-coverage requirements might impose qualification criteria which would make difficult if not impossible the goal of Bar-wide total client protection, particularly if funding were maintained through a consistent annual assessment. The Committee also noted that of the 46 states which maintain client security funds only the State of Montana has a fund from which claims are paid through the use of insurance proceeds. Since that state has relatively few lawyers, its experience in this area does not reflect the common experience of most other states. One other state has attempted to use insurance as a means of funding the client security fund, but after a year decided that the cost of insurance and the limited coverage available was simply not cost effective.

• IOLTA Funding

The use of funds for client security purposes from interest derived on Lawyer Trust Accounts was reviewed by the Committee. The IRS has consistently taken the position that a contribution to a Client Security Fund by an IOLTA Program would result in the loss of the tax-exempt status for the IOLTA Program. The IRS rationale is that the Client Security Fund promotes, protects and enhances the legal profession--not the public--and that therefore contributions to such Funds would reflect that the IOLTA Program was not being operated exclusively for tax-exempt purposes [see Kentucky Bar Foundation, Inc. v. Commissioner, 78T.C. 921(1982)].

In any event, the Committee recognizes that the original purpose of the IOLTA Program was to provide legal aid to the poor. Moreover, at a time when federal funding of legal services has been significantly reduced, and an overall reduction in interest rates paid by banks has also considerably reduced the funds available to legal services programs through IOLTA, the Committee believes that an additional burden ought not be placed on IOLTA to support Client Security.

B. Payment Issues

When the Client Security Fund was operated by the MSBA, payments were limited to $5,000 per claimant. The cap was increased to $50,000 per claim after the Supreme Court assumed responsibility for the Fund in 1987. Although several states have no stated cap on claims, Minnesota shares with Arizona, California, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Iowa, Pennsylvania and Washington the cap of $50,000. New York at present has a stated claim maximum payment of $100,000.

Committee member Melvin Orenstein, who has served as Chair of the Client Security Board since it came under the Court's jurisdiction in 1987, has indicated that aside from numerous small unearned retainer claims, most claims fall within the $10,000 to $20,000 range. As assistant director of the Client Security Board, Martin Cole reported that on average there is one claim per year which exceeds the $50,000 cap. It is Cole's recommendation that the cap be raised to $100,000. The Committee believes that a Client Security Board rule allowing Board discretion in the payment of claims up to and even exceeding a "nominal" cap of $100,000 would be feasible. The Board should also be allowed discretion to at any time adjust the limitation cap downward based on factors enumerated in the Board's Rules.

The Committee also recommends payment of interest at the statutory rate on a discretionary basis from the date of filing the claim. Factors which should be considered by the Board in deciding to award interest would include the length of time between filing the claim and its disposition and whether delays, if any, were caused by disciplinary investigations, third party litigation, or other factors outside the control of the Board.

Fund reserves are at present invested through the office of the State Treasurer, with no apparent problems in the accounting of receipts and disbursements between that office and the Client Security Board. The Board is reported to be the only Minnesota state agency activity which is allowed to retain the interest earned on its monies placed with the Treasurer's office.

C. Client Security Board Operations

During the course of this study the Client Protection Committee obtained significant testimony regarding the Client Security Board, its operation and administration. Justice Popovich and Melvin Orenstein, as members of the Committee, provided first-hand information relating to creation of the Board and its functioning to date. The Committee also held interviews with the Board's professional staff; William Wernz, the former Director; Martin Cole, Assistant Director; and Marcia Johnson, the present Director.

Although the occasional and sensational media account of a claim before the Board might suggest a system in dysfunction, the Committee is in agreement that the Client Security Board has an outstanding record of providing client relief in the manner and under the guidelines envisioned by the Bar. The terms of several Board members are soon to expire, and the Board is using the occasion for a self-analysis with the expectation of making its own recommendations to the Court for such rule changes as may be appropriate.

Among the issues relating to Client Security Board governance and operations are the following:

• Composition of Board Membership

The Board presently consists of seven members appointed by the Court, two of whom are non-lawyers. Although some view a four to three ratio as more desirable, there was consensus among Board observers that the lay members were generally more conservative in granting claimant awards than were the lawyers. There appears to be no public concern over composition of Board membership, and the Committee believes the present structure is both workable and fair. It is noted that a similar state Board serving the medical profession contains no lay persons.

However, in the interest of broadening the base of representation of Bar membership on the Board, the Committee recommends the appointment of an attorney from the public service sector as one of the lawyer members. This recommendation is made in recognition of various concerns expressed by representatives of the MSBA Public Law Section in their meeting with the Committee.

• Judicial Review

In its discussion of Board operations, the Committee was reminded by the Messrs. Orenstein and Wernz that under the Board's rules as adopted and promulgated by the Court, reimbursement of a client's claim is a matter of Board discretion and not a right. Although this raises a question of public accountability, the Attorney General has argued before the Supreme Court in representing the Board on a claimant's appeal that the Court has no jurisdiction in these matters. If a rule change allowing judicial review is adopted, it will require significant additional resources for the Board to provide for maintaining a formal record of its proceedings.

The Committee recommends that mandatory judicial review of Board Actions not be made part of the Court's rule regarding Client Security Board operations.

• Board Rules and Policies

The Committee considered the question of whether interest should be paid on claims to the extent that their timely resolution is not obtained. According to Board records, once a decision has properly come before the Board, it is quickly rendered and a claim is awarded as required by the findings. Any delay is not a function of Board inaction, but rather a result of coordination with the procedures of the Lawyers' Professional Responsibility Board [LPRB], since that Board is also generally involved in lawyer defalcation problems. It is also noted that the Board engages in limited investigative work and generally relies for its fact-finding upon the LPRB and the courts. It is the consensus of the Committee that the Board functions well under its present policies and procedural rules, and that no major overhaul of its operations is required. A proposal that the Board adopt the Model Rules promulgated by the ABA is deemed unnecessary insofar as the substance of those rules is already contained in the current Minnesota Rules. A recommendation regarding the payment of interest is set forth in Section III.B above.

D. Prevention Issues

• Client Education

The Committee reviewed various proposals to better inform the public about the nature of the attorney-client relationship and how it is jeopardized by lawyer defalcation. The MSBA public relations consultant advised that in general the public is only concerned about making the concept of a client security fund work better than it does, and about whether the Bar is doing enough to prevent defalcation recurrence.

Favorable media coverage of compensation for lawyer defalcation is difficult to obtain in any event because the occurrence is always the negative fact of attorney theft. Even the proactive press coverage of Client Security Board operations stems from lawyer wrongdoing and is therefore difficult to utilize for purposes of favorable Bar publicity. The Committee also believes a broadly-based client education effort on the subject of attorney defalcation and how it might be avoided is difficult to accomplish and that the better course is for the Bar to be fully prepared for a response to the public as and when a story is sought by the media.

• Attorney Education

The basic requirements of a lawyer's ethical responsibility and faithful stewardship to the client must be a part of the law school applicant's character. However, the Bar can and should play a role in continually re-emphasizing these principles throughout the lawyer's professional career. Emphasis on professional integrity in CLE activities, such as "Bridging the Gap," must be a high priority in such programming. The Committee also believes the MSBA itself must continually stress compliance with the highest standards of professional integrity in all its publications and conferences.

• Random Audits

Although a program involving random audits of trust accounts would undoubtedly have some deterrent effect on lawyer defalcation, the Committee believes the administrative cost of maintaining such a program would not be justified. Defalcation occurs in both large firms and small, it involves the solo practitioner as well as corporate counsel.

Further, experience has shown that certain matters involving lawyer defalcation involve claims where a trust account was not involved, thus making the audit of trust accounts of little or no value in such occurrences. The general audit practice is to merely reconcile trust account balances, and such auditing techniques would of themselves also be inadequate to uncover defalcation. An audit which would deter any significant amount of trust account misconduct would have to be so broadly based as to make it cost prohibitive. In any event, the negative public reaction to just one substantial case of previously-undetected defalcation would only serve to place the entire audit effort into question. The Committee believes that available resources of time, energy and money can be better applied to existing Client Security Board operations and its Claimant Fund.

In an informal telephone discussion with the Executive Director of the Client Security Board in charge of random audits, the experience of the Iowa Board which established a random audit procedure in 1974 has indicated that the audit is nothing more than the above-described reconciliation of a lawyer's trust account and does not involve a full scale audit of a lawyer's records. The Board attempts to reach all attorneys over a four year period. For that purpose, it employs on an hourly basis three retired Internal Revenue agents who have audit experience. These individuals are used in other capacities by the Iowa disciplinary authorities and are also used to monitor the IOLTA accounts. The annual cost is approximately $40,000. Iowa has approximately 4,500 attorneys in private practice; Minnesota has more than three times that number in private practice, with the result that the cost would be substantially greater if that system were to be used in Minnesota.

· Double Signature and Insurance Company Notification

In several states client security is enhanced by a requirement that insurance settlement claim checks be made payable to and endorsed by both plaintiff and counsel. In New York, claim settlement payments in excess of a specified level require the insurance company's notification to the plaintiff client according to the information received from the administrator of the New York Client Security System. During the three year period since this notification requirement was imposed, New York has experienced a significant drop in client security claims of this type.

A similar rule applies in Pennsylvania on all claims over $1,000. The insurance industry was successful in defeating such a rule in North Carolina based on concerns over administrative costs and potential liability for failure to notify the client. The Committee believes that these preventive steps are reasonable, not unduly burdensome, and can serve to reduce the incidence of defalcation.

· Trust Overdraft Notification

The Minnesota Supreme Court recently adopted Rule 1.15(j) MRPC which requires banks to notify the office of the Director of Professional Responsibility of overdrafts in lawyer trust accounts. While it is too early to measure the effect of the Rule, the Director of Professional Responsibility has begun to contact lawyers where the size or incidence of overdrafts warrant question. The Committee believes that the establishment of procedures of this type will help lower the incidence of trust account theft.

IV.

Recommendations

Based on the determinations and findings outlined in this Report, the Client Protection Committee recommends to the MSBA Board of Governors:

1. That the Supreme Court adopt a uniform and on-going annual assessment of $20 upon all lawyers licensed to practice in the State of Minnesota for the purpose of providing revenue to the Client Security Fund. The assessment should be subject to a review of the annual assessment amount at such time as the Client Security Fund reserve account exceeds $2.5 million in order to determine whether such reserve is sufficient to provide for periods of extraordinary demand upon the Fund.

2. That the Supreme Court adopt rule changes to raise the payment cap to $100,000 per claim while still allowing the Board discretion to adjust that amount either upward or downward based on various factors as provided for in the Board Rules.

3. That the Supreme Court adopt a rule allowing for payment of interest at the statutory rate on a discretionary basis from the date of filing the claim. Factors to be considered by the Board in deciding to award interest would include the length of time between filing the claim and its disposition and investigations, third party litigation, or other factors outside the control of the Board.

4. That the Supreme Court Consider the appointment of an attorney from the public service sector as one of the lawyer members of the Client Security Board.

5. That mandatory judicial review of Board actions not be made part of the Court's rule regarding Client Security Board operations.

6. That the MSBA develop more effective educational and public relations programs for all lawyers and the general public regarding lawyer defalcation issues and the work of the Client Security Board.

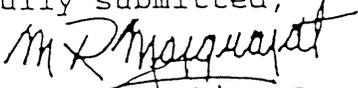

7. That the MSBA widely disseminate to the general public information regarding the function and the availability of the Client Security Fund.

8. That the MSBA recommend a specific program to the law schools for office management including special emphasis on trust accounting.

9. That the Minnesota Department of Commerce enact insurance regulations which would require insurance companies licensed to do business in the State of Minnesota to notify claimants of insurance settlements made through the claimant's lawyer.

Nos. C9-81-1206 & C0-85-2205

In re:

Amendment of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys and Rules of the Client Security Board

PETITION OF MINNESOTA STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Petitioner Minnesota State Bar Association ("MSBA") respectfully petitions this Honorable Court to amend the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys and Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board.

1. Petitioner Minnesota State Bar Association ("MSBA") is a not-for-profit corporation of attorneys authorized to practice before this Honorable Court and the other courts of this state.

2. This Honorable Court has the exclusive and inherent power and duty to administer justice and to adopt rules of practice and procedure before the courts of this state and to establish the standards for regulating the legal profession. This power has been expressly recognized by the Legislature. See Minn. Stat. § 480.05 (1992).

3. This Honorable Court has adopted the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys and the Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board. Pursuant to those rules, this Honorable Court has jurisdiction and control over the Client Security Fund ("Fund") and the administration of the Fund.

4. In 1987 this Honorable Court amended the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys to assume jurisdiction over the Fund. Theretofore, the Fund had been administered as a voluntary fund created and established by Petitioner MSBA. At the time the Court assumed jurisdiction over the Fund, it promulgated the Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board. See Order Creating the Minnesota Client Security Board, No. C0-85-2205 (Minn., Apr. 15, 1986).

5. In 1990 this Honorable Court amended Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys. This order also directed the Petitioner, as well as the Client Security Board, to "continue to monitor these rules and amendments and [to] explore ways of permanently financing the Client Security Fund." See In re Amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys, No. C9-81-1206 (Minn., Nov. 14, 1990).

6. Pursuant to the 1990 Order, in early 1991 the MSBA established a Client Protection Committee ("MSBA Committee") to consider issues and problems arising under the existing Rules governing the administration and financing of the Fund. The MSBA Committee studied these issues in detail, met at least eleven times between early 1991 and early 1993, and issued its Report of the Client Protection Committee ("Report") on January 29, 1993. A true and correct copy of this Report is attached to this Petition as Exhibit A and by this reference is made part hereof.

7. The MSBA accepted the Report and resolved to carry out its recommendations by action of its Board of Governors on April 24, 1993, and of its General Assembly on June 24, 1993, at its annual convention. This Petition was authorized and endorsed at that time.

8. The MSBA respectfully recommends and requests this Court to amend the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys and the Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board as follows:

a) Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys should be amended to retain the existing language of the rule but to delete the provision of the order adopting the rule that causes the $20.00 fee to be collected only until July 1, 1995. See Order, In re Amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys, No. C9-81-1206, ¶ 5 (Minn., Nov. 14, 1990). Petitioner requests that the fee be collected permanently, pending further order of the Court and that the Minnesota Client Security Board be directed to advise the Court in the Board's annual report when the Fund's reserve account reaches $2,500,000 in value.

This amendment is requested to implement Recommendation 1 of the Report.

b) Rule 3.14 of the Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board should be amended to add a new subdivision (c) as follows:

RULE 3.14 DETERMINATION

c. The maximum amount that may be paid to any claimant for a single claim is $100,000. In exceptional circumstances, the Board may allow a greater or lesser amount based on the factors set forth in subdivision (b) of this rule.

This amendment is requested to implement Recommendation 2 of the Report and is intended both to establish and modify the $50,000 payment cap that has been traditionally followed by the Board and to increase that cap to $100,000. Heretofore the Board has followed the practice of not paying more than $50,000 on any one claim, but this practice is an unwritten rule. Petitioner respectfully submits it should be made explicit as well as increased in amount to $100,000.

c) Rule 3.14 of the Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board should be amended to add a new subdivision (d) as follows:

* * *

d. The Board may award interest on any award at the rate of interest payable on judgments on a discretionary basis from the date of filing the claim. In determining the amount of interest, if any, the Board may consider:

- (1) The length of time between filing the claim and its disposition;
- (2) The existence of third-party litigation; and
- (3) Other factors outside the control of the Board.

This recommendation is made to implement Recommendation 3 of the Report.

9. Petitioner considered, but recommends no action on, suggestions that the rules be amended to provide for mandatory judicial review of Client Security Board decisions. The reasons for this recommendation are set forth in the Report at 90-91.

10. In addition to the foregoing rule amendments, Petitioner respectfully urges this court to consider appointment, from time to time, of an attorney from the public service sector as one of the lawyer members of the Client Security Board.

Based upon the foregoing authorities and the Report attached as Exhibit A, Petitioner Minnesota State Bar Association respectfully requests that this Honorable Court implement the rules amendments proposed in Paragraph 8, above and to take the further action regarding appointments to the Client Security Board as set forth in Paragraph 10.

Date: This ___ day of August, 1993.

PROMULGATION OF AMENDMENTS TO
THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT
FOR REGISTRATION OF ATTORNEYS
AND RULES OF THE CLIENT SECURITY BOARD

WHEREAS, the Minnesota State Bar Association filed a petition with this Court that recommended amendments to Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys and Rule 3.14 (c) and (d) of the Rules of the Client Security Board, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court held a hearing on the proposed amendments on November 17, 1993, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has reviewed the recommendations and is fully advised in the premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys is amended as follows: ~~Any attorney admitted to practice law on or after July 1, 1988, shall pay to the Minnesota Client Security Fund $50 in the fiscal year of admission and an additional $50 in the fiscal year the attorney becomes subject to the first paragraph of this rule. This second $50 shall be instead of any annual assessment in favor of the Client Security Fund in that year.~~
2. The $20.00 annual fee shall be collected for the Client Security Fund on a permanent basis.
3. The Client Security Board shall report to the Supreme Court when the Client Security Fund reaches $1,500,000 in value.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED:

1. Rule 3.14 is amended to add new subdivisions (c) and (d) as follows:

c. The maximum amount that may be paid to any claimant for a single claim is $100,000. In exceptional circumstances, the Board may allow a greater or lesser amount based on the factors set forth in subdivision (b) of this rule.

d. The Board may, in its discretion, award interest on any award at the rate of interest payable under Minnesota § 549.04 from the date of filing the claim. In determining the amount of interest, if any, the Board may consider:

- (1) The length of time between filing the claim and its disposition;
- (2) The existence of third-party litigation; and
- (3) Other factors outside the control of the Board.

2. The amendments to Rule 3.14 are retroactively effective for all claims filed on or after February 1, 1993.

Re: Client Security Board Budgets

Dear Justice Anderson:

Enclosed are eight copies of the Client Security Board's FY'96, FY'97 and FY'98 budgets. The Board approved the budgets at its March 11, 1996, meeting.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Administrative Policy No. 1, the Board is seeking approval to exceed its FY'96 budget by $9,507. This was caused by the fact that the invoice to the Client Security Board from the Lawyers Board for services rendered in January through June of 1995 did not get approved until late August 1995, which entered into the next fiscal year. The FY'95 invoice had to be paid out of FY'96 funds.

The Board's FY'97 budget projects a year-end balance for the Fund in excess of $1.5 million. The Court's December 3, 1993, order (copy enclosed) requires the Board to notify the Court when the Fund reaches that value.

PROMULGATION OF AMENDMENTS TO
THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT
FOR REGISTRATION OF ATTORNEYS

ORDER

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court annually reviews the budgets, revenues, and programmatic needs of each of the boards regulating the practice of law,

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court recognizes the temporary need to reappropriation of the attorney registration fee;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court for Registration of Attorneys is amended as follows:

RULE 2. REGISTRATION FEE

A. In order to defray the expenses of examinations and investigation for admission to the bar and disciplinary proceedings, over and above the amount paid by applicants for such admission, with exception hereafter enumerated, each attorney admitted to practice law in this state and those members of the judiciary who are required to be admitted to practice as a prerequisite to holding office shall hereinafter annually pay to the clerk of the appellate courts a registration fee in the sum of Two Hundred and Seven Dollars ($207.00) or in such lesser sum as the court may annually hereafter determine.

Such fee, or portion thereof, shall be paid on or before the first day of January, April, July, or October of each year as requested by the clerk of the appellate courts

All sums so received shall be allocated as follows:

$20.00 to the State Board of Law Examiners

$14.00 to the State Board of Continuing Legal Education

$110.00 to the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board

$13.00 to the Minnesota Client Security Fund

$50.00 to the Legal Services Advisory Committee.

An attorney who certifies that his or her gross income from all sources, excluding the income of a spouse, is less than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per year, shall pay a registration fee in the sum of One Hundred Eighty-two Dollars ($182.00). The allocation to the Legal Services Advisory Committee shall be reduced by Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00).

B. The following attorneys and judges shall pay an annual registration fee of One Hundred and One Dollars ($101.00):

- (a) Any attorney or judge whose permanent residence is outside the State of Minnesota and who does not practice law within the state;
- (b) Any attorney while on duty in the armed forces of the United States.

The One Hundred and One Dollars ($101.00) so received shall be allocated as follows:

$20.00 to the State Board of Law Examiners

$7.00 to the State Board of Continuing Legal Education

$24.00 to the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board

$50.00 to the Legal Services Advisory Committee.

An attorney who certifies that his or her gross income from all sources, excluding the income of a spouse, is less than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per year, shall pay a registration fee in the sum of Seventy-six Dollars ($76.00). The allocation to the Legal Services Advisory Committee shall be reduced by Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00).

C. Any attorney who has not been admitted to practice for more than three years shall pay an annual registration fee of Ninety-six Dollars ($96.00).

The Ninety-Six Dollars ($96.00) so received shall be allocated as follows:

$20.00 to the State Board of Law Examiners

$14.00 to the State Board of Continuing Legal Education

$24.00 to the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board

$13.00 to the Client Security Fund

$25.00 to the Legal Services Advisory Committee.

An attorney who certifies that his or her gross income from all sources, excluding the income of a spouse, is less than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per year, shall pay a registration fee in the sum of Eighty-three dollars and fifty cents ($83.50). The allocation to the Legal Services Advisory Committee shall be reduced by Twelve Dollars and fifty cents ($12.50).

D. Any attorney who is retired from any gainful employment or permanently disabled, or who files annually with the clerk of the appellate courts an affidavit that he or she is so retired or disabled and not engaged in the practice of law, shall be placed in a fee-exempt category and shall remain in good standing. An attorney claiming retired or permanently disabled status who subsequently resumes active practice of law shall promptly file notice of such change of status with the clerk of the appellate courts and pay the annual registration fee.

E. Any judge who is retired from any gainful employment or permanently disabled, who no longer serves on the bench or practices law, and who files annually with the clerk of the appellate courts that he or she is so retired or disabled and not engaged in the practice of law, shall be placed in a fee-exempt category and shall remain in good standing. A judge claiming retired or permanently disabled status who subsequently resumes service on the bench or the active practice of law shall promptly file notice of such change of status with the clerk of the appellate courts and pay the annual registration fee.

2. The increase in attorney registration fees shall be effective for licenses being renewed on or after August 6, 1997, and for new licenses issued on or after August 6, 1997. This allocation shall continue in effect until June 30, 1998.
