FOREWORD FROM THE CHAIR

On behalf of the board members and staff of the Board on Judicial Standards, it is our pleasure to present this 2021 Annual Report of the Board on Judicial Standards to the citizens of Minnesota, Governor, Legislature, and the Minnesota Judiciary.

The board members take great pride in the hard work of the Board to provide education, ensure compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct, review and investigate complaints, and recommend discipline of judges.

The Minnesota Board on Judicial Standards is charged with enforcing the Minnesota Code of Judicial Conduct and with interpreting the Code for the education of judges and others. The Minnesota Legislature created the Board in 1971 and provides its operational funds. The Governor appoints all Board members, including four judges, four public members, and two lawyers. The public members and the lawyers are subject to Senate confirmation. All board members serve in a volunteer capacity. The Minnesota Supreme Court adopts rules of the Code of Judicial Conduct and adopts procedural rules for the Board on Judicial Standards.

The Judicial Code establishes a high standard for judicial conduct in the State of Minnesota. The Preamble to the Code states:

The United States legal system is based upon the principle that an independent, impartial, and competent judiciary, composed of men and women of integrity, will interpret and apply the law that governs our society. Thus, the judiciary plays a central role in preserving the principles of justice and the rule of law. Inherent in all of the Rules contained in this Code are the precepts that judges, individually and collectively, must respect and honor the judicial office as a public trust and strive to maintain and enhance confidence in the legal system.

Judges should maintain the dignity of judicial office at all times and avoid both impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in their professional and personal lives. They should aspire at all times to conduct that ensures the greatest possible public confidence in their independence, impartiality, integrity, and competence.

The members of the Board take these principles to heart in carrying out their duties and make every effort to fulfill the Board's mission.

The Board's primary function is to receive, investigate, and evaluate complaints of judicial misconduct. Complaints that do not allege conduct that violates the Code are dismissed. If the Board finds that a judge has violated the Code, the Board may issue private discipline or a public reprimand. In cases involving more serious misconduct, the Board may seek public discipline by filing a formal complaint against the judge with the Minnesota Supreme Court. After a public hearing, potential discipline imposed by the Supreme Court may include a reprimand, suspension, or removal from office. In addition to cases involving misconduct, the Board has jurisdiction to consider allegations that a judge has a physical or mental disability.

Education is also an important Board function. The Board and its Executive Secretary respond to judges' requests for informal advisory opinions. The Board also issues formal opinions on subjects of importance. The Board's website provides a wealth of information, including links to the Code of Judicial Conduct, the Board's procedural rules, Board opinions, public discipline cases, annual reports, and other judicial conduct resources. In addition, the Executive Secretary gives presentations on current ethics topics to newly-appointed judges, at meetings of district court judges, and at state-wide judicial seminars. Finally, the Executive Secretary endeavors to maintain open and cordial relationships with the Minnesota Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals, and the Minnesota District Court Judges in an effort to maintain confidence in Board decisions and compliance with the Code.

In 2021, the Board received a total of 237 complaints, summarily dismissed 198 complaints, reviewed 41 complaints at board meetings, authorized investigations of 19 complaints, issued discipline against five judges, and entered into one private deferred disposition agreement. The Board also issued four letters of caution to judges regarding their conduct to point out areas in need of improvement. In addition, the Executive Secretary issued 167 informal advisory opinions to individual judges at their request.

The Board accomplished many important goals in 2021. These include:

- Public member Scott Sakaguchi joined the Board as a new member.
- The Board welcomed Mary Pat Maher to the Executive Assistant position in July 2021.
- Board staff upgraded office computer hardware and software.
- Board staff issued a high number of written informal advisory opinions to judges.
- Board staff researched and began implementation of an online complaint submission form and online record management.
- Board members provided in-person and virtual guidance and advice to judges experiencing difficulties.
- The Board engaged in outreach and education for judges at bench meetings, seminars, and conferences. Executive Secretary Sipkins gave in person and virtual presentations to many of the State's ten judicial districts, to provide education regarding judicial ethics. He has presented to each of the State's ten districts.
- Executive Secretary Sipkins and Staff Attorney Boeshans gave a virtual presentation to the Court of Appeals.
- Former Executive Secretary Thomas Vasaly, Board Member Judge Ellen Maas, and Staff Attorney Boeshans, along with members of the judiciary, gave a presentation at the Minnesota District Judges Association Fall Judicial Conference.
- Staff Attorney Boeshans, along with members of the judiciary, gave a virtual presentation at the 2021 Annual Conference of Judges.

- The Board updated “Minnesota Judicial Ethics Outline” on the Board’s website. The Outline addresses a wide variety of subjects, such as the history of judicial discipline in Minnesota, case law interpreting the Code, and summaries of the Board’s ethics opinions.

The Board anticipates the appointment of a new public member, an attorney member, and a trial judge member to the Board in 2022. The terms of Carol Cummins, Cindy K. Telstad, Esq., and the Hon. Ellen M. Maas will expire upon the appointment of their successors. It has been a pleasure to work with such dedicated and committed staff and board members to fulfill the Board’s important mission.

Cindy K. Telstad
Chair of the Board on Judicial Standards

INTRODUCTION

A society cannot function without an effective, fair, and impartial procedure to resolve disputes. In Minnesota, the Constitution and laws provide a system designed to fit these essential criteria. The preservation of the rule of law, as well as the continued acceptance of judicial rulings, depends on unshakeable public recognition that the judiciary and the court system are worthy of respect and trust.

Unlike the executive and legislative branches of government, the judiciary “has no influence over either the sword or the purse.” The Federalist No. 78, at 465 (Alexander Hamilton). “The legal system depends on public confidence in judges, whose power rests in large measure on the ability to command respect for judicial decisions. Whether or not directly related to judicial duties, misconduct by a judge brings the office into disrepute and thereby prejudices the administration of justice.” In re Miera, 426 N.W.2d 851, 858 (Minn. 1988).

It is the Board’s mission to promote and preserve public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of our judicial system by enforcing the Judicial Code and by educating judges and others regarding proper judicial conduct.

AUTHORIZATION

The 1971 Legislature approved an amendment to the Minnesota Constitution authorizing the Legislature to “provide for the retirement, removal or other discipline of any judge who is disabled, incompetent or guilty of conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.” The 1971 Legislature also created the “Commission” (now “Board”) on Judicial Standards and authorized the Supreme Court to make rules to implement the legislation. (Current version at Minn. Stat. §§ 490A.01-.03.) In 1972, Minnesota voters approved the constitutional amendment (Minn. Const. Art. VI, § 9), and the Minnesota Supreme Court adopted the Code.*

ORGANIZATION

The Board has ten members: one Court of Appeals judge, three district court judges, two lawyers, and four citizens who are not judges or lawyers. The Board members are

---

* Until 1972, Minnesota appellate and district court judges could be removed or suspended from office for misconduct only by the rarely used impeachment process, which involves impeachment by the Minnesota House of Representatives and conviction by the Minnesota Senate. Since 1996, judges have also been subject to recall by the voters, although this has never happened. Minn. Const. Art. VIII, § 6.

appointed by the Governor and, except for the judges, are subject to confirmation by the Senate. Members' terms are four years and may be extended for an additional four years.

The Board meets approximately eight times annually and more often if necessary. Non-judge members of the Board may claim standard State per diems as well as reimbursement for expenses such as mileage. Judge members are not paid per diems.

The Board is supported by a staff consisting of the Executive Secretary, an executive assistant, and a part-time staff attorney. At the direction of the Board, the staff is responsible for reviewing and investigating complaints, providing informal opinions to judges on the application of the Code, maintaining records concerning the operation of the office, preparing the budget, administering the Board funds, and making regular reports to the Board, the Supreme Court, the Legislature, and the public.

CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

The Minnesota Supreme Court has adopted the Code of Judicial Conduct to govern judicial ethics. Intrinsic to the Code are the precepts that judges, individually and collectively, must respect and honor the judicial office as a public trust and strive to enhance and maintain confidence in our legal system.

The Board considers only complaints involving the professional or personal conduct of judges. The Code is not construed so as to impinge on the essential independence of judges in making judicial decisions. Complaints about the merits of decisions by judges may be considered through the appellate process.

RULES AND PROCEDURES

The Rules of the Board on Judicial Standards are issued by the Minnesota Supreme Court. Under its Rules, the Board has the authority to investigate complaints concerning a judge's conduct or physical or mental condition. If a complaint provides information that furnishes a reasonable basis to believe there might be a disciplinary violation, the Board may direct the Executive Secretary to conduct an investigation.

Under the Rules, the Board may take several types of actions regarding complaints. It may dismiss a complaint if there is not reasonable cause to believe that the Code was violated. A dismissal may be accompanied by a letter of caution to the judge. If the Board finds reasonable cause, it may issue a private admonition, a public reprimand, or a formal complaint. The Board may also defer a disposition or impose conditions on a judge's conduct, such as obtaining professional counseling or treatment.

The Board affords judges a full and fair opportunity to defend against allegations of improper conduct. If the Board issues a formal complaint or a judge appeals a public reprimand, a public hearing will be held. Hearings are conducted by a three-person panel appointed by the Supreme Court. After the hearing, the panel may dismiss the complaint, issue a public reprimand, or recommend that the Supreme Court impose more serious discipline, such as censure, suspension, or removal from office. If the panel recommends that the Court impose discipline or if the judge or the Board appeals the panel's action, the final decision is made by the Court.

If a judge appeals a private admonition, a private hearing will be held. Hearings are conducted by a three-person panel appointed by the Supreme Court. After the hearing, the panel may dismiss the complaint, affirm the admonition, or recommend that the Board issue a public reprimand or a formal complaint. If the judge appeals the panel's affirmance of an admonition, the Court makes the final decision.

All proceedings of the Board are confidential unless a public reprimand is issued, or a formal complaint has been filed with the Supreme Court. The Board notifies complainants of its actions, including dismissals and private dispositions, and provides brief explanations.

An absolute privilege attaches to any information or testimony submitted to the Board, and no civil action against a complainant, witness, or his or her counsel may be based on such information.

AUTHORITY AND JURISDICTION

The Minnesota Board on Judicial Standards has jurisdiction over complaints concerning the following judicial officials:

- State court judges, including judges of the District Courts, Court of Appeals and Supreme Court. There are 296 district court judge positions and 26 appellate judge positions.
- Approximately 99 retired judges in "senior" status, who at times serve as active judges.
- Judicial branch employees who perform judicial functions, including referees, magistrates, and other judicial officers.
- Judges of the Minnesota Tax Court (3) and the Workers' Compensation Court of Appeals (5) and the Chief Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings (1).*

---

* See Rule 2, Rules of Board on Judicial Standards; Code of Judicial Conduct, "Application"; Minn. Stat. §§ 14.48, subds. 2 and 3(d), 175A.01, subd. 4, 271.01, subd. 1, 490A.03.

The Board does not have jurisdiction over complaints that concern the following persons:

- Court administrators or personnel, court reporters, law enforcement personnel, and other non-judicial persons.
- Federal judges. Complaints against federal judges may be filed with the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals.
- Lawyers (except, in some circumstances, those who become judges or who were judges). Complaints against lawyers may be filed with the Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility.

2021 COMPLAINT STATISTICS

In 2021, the Board opened 39 files based on written complaints alleging matters within the Board’s jurisdiction. The number of files opened annually by the Board since 1972 is set forth below:

This chart shows a decline in the number of files opened beginning in 2014. The decline appears to be due to at least two factors.

First, in 2014, the Legislature transferred primary responsibility for enforcing the “90-day rule” from the Board to the chief judges of the judicial districts. The 90-day rule generally requires a judge to rule within 90 days after a case is submitted. Minn. Stat. § 546.27. Judicial Branch case-tracking reports of possible violations are now sent to the chief judges rather than to the Board.

Second, the chart reflects only matters that were reviewed by the full Board and does not reflect complaints that were summarily dismissed. If a complaint does not fall within the Board’s jurisdiction, the complaint may be summarily dismissed by the Executive Secretary, subject to the approval of a single Board member. This procedure avoids the inefficiency of requiring the full Board to review complaints that are not within its jurisdiction.

For example, complaints that merely express dissatisfaction with a judge's decision are summarily dismissed under Board Rule 4(c). In recent years, larger numbers of nonjurisdictional complaints have been summarily dismissed, as shown in the next table:

SUMMARY DISMISSALS
(BY YEAR)
2012	78
2013	60
2014	99
2015	102
2016	112
2017	117
2018	167
2019	147
2020	125
2021	198

As reflected in the following two tables, most complaints were filed by litigants against district court judges:

SOURCES OF COMPLAINTS
AND REPORTS – 2021
Litigant	14
Citizen	11
Attorney	4
Board	4
Judge	2
Prosecutor	2
Self-Report	2
TOTAL	39

JUDGES SUBJECT TO COMPLAINTS
AND REPORTS – 2021

District Court Judges	31
Court of Appeals Judges	3
Supreme Court Justices	0
Referees/Magistrates/Judicial Officers	3
Senior judge	2
Other judicial officer	0
TOTAL	39

The types of allegations are set forth below. The total exceeds 39 because many complaints contained more than one allegation.

ALLEGATIONS REPORTED – 2021

General demeanor and decorum	20
Bias, discrimination, or partiality	17
Abuse of authority or prestige	9
Ex parte communication	8
Failure to follow law or procedure	8
Political activity	7
Conflict of interest	4
Administrative irregularity	2
Delay in handling court business	2
Failure to perform duties	2
Improper conduct on the bench	2
Practicing law; giving legal advice	1
Sexual misconduct	1

Of the 39 files opened in 2021, all of them were considered by the Board in 2021. Two additional files from 2020 were considered by the Board in 2021, for a total of 41 files considered. Of the 41 total files first considered in 2021, the Board determined that 19 of the matters warranted formal investigation. A formal investigation includes asking the judge to submit a written response to the Board. In addition, a formal investigation typically includes review of court records and interviews with court participants and may include reviewing audio recordings of the hearings. A judge or the Board may request the judge appear before the Board to discuss the allegations of judicial misconduct.

The majority of complaints and Board-initiated investigations (26) were dismissed in 2021. Many complaints are dismissed because they concern a judge's rulings or other discretionary decisions that are generally outside the Board's purview. The reasons for dismissal are set forth below. The count of dismissal reasons differs from the number of complaints opened in 2021 because some were dismissed in 2021 but had been opened in 2020, and because some complaints are dismissed for more than one reason. Also, at the end of 2021, four complaints were still under investigation and thus, remained open.

DISMISSAL REASONS – 2021

No misconduct; no violation	27
Insufficient evidence	8
No issue left to resolve	6
Frivolous, no grounds	5
Within discretion of judge	5
Unsubstantiated after investigation	4
Legal or appellate issues	4
Corrective action by judge	4
Retired pending board action	3
Complaint withdrawn	2

As shown in the table below, in 2021, six matters resulted in discipline and four matters were resolved with a letter of caution to the judge.

DISPOSITIONS – BY YEAR ISSUED
Year	Letter of Caution	Admonition	Deferred Disposition Agreement	Public Reprimand	Supreme Court Discipline
2012	2	5	0	1	0
2013	4	2	0	1	0
2014	2	5	0	2	1
2015	1	2	1	1	1
2016	3	1	3	1	0
2017	5	3	0	0	0
2018	9	4	0	1	0
2019	4	2	1	0	0
2020	7	0	1	1	0
2021	4	4	1	1	0

CASE DISPOSITIONS

In 2021, the Board issued one public reprimand, four private admonitions, and a private deferred disposition agreement. The Board also issued four letters of caution. A letter of caution is a non-disciplinary disposition. A sampling of the disciplinary actions and a sampling of the letters of caution are summarized below.

PUBLIC DISPOSITIONS

Public dispositions are posted on the Board’s website at <http://bjs.state.mn.us/board-and-panel-public-reprimands>. There was one public disposition in 2021.

Judge Matthew M. Quinn

Judge Quinn posted comments and memes on his private Facebook page, and “liked” or otherwise reacted to numerous posts endorsing or opposing candidates for public office. He was also tagged on Facebook in numerous photographs of the Trump Boat Parade on the Mississippi on September 5, 2020. The photographs show that Judge Quinn drove the boat, which displayed at least two Trump flags. Judge Quinn also wore a MAGA (“Make America Great Again”) hat. The local newspaper published these photographs but did not name Judge Quinn. The Board found that Judge Quinn violated the following provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct: Rule 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), Rule 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), Rule 1.3 (Avoiding Abuse of Prestige of Judicial Office), and Rule 4.1 (A)(3) (Political and Campaign Activities of Judges and Judicial Candidates in General), and publicly reprimanded Judge Quinn.

PRIVATE DISPOSITIONS

Private Admonitions Issued in 2021

Summaries of the private admonitions the Board has issued since 2009 are available on the Board's website at <http://www.bjs.state.mn.us/file/private-discipline/private-discipline-summaries.pdf>. The purpose of providing summaries of the private dispositions is to educate the public and to help judges avoid improper conduct. The Board issued four private admonitions and four letters of caution in 2021.

- A judge told a conciliation court clerk, in private, that the clerk always looked nice and that the judge liked the dress the clerk wore the day before, that the clerk could file for a Harassment Restraining Order against the judge, and that the judge could ask the clerk for a hug, but it would be inappropriate. The comments the judge made to the clerk, even if said in a joking manner, constitute sexual harassment under Judicial Branch Policy 304 and the Code of Judicial Conduct. The judge's conduct violated Rules 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 1.3(Avoiding Abuse of the Prestige of Judicial Office), 2.3 (Bias, Prejudice, and Harassment), and 2.8 (Decorum and Demeanor) of the Minnesota Code of Judicial Conduct and warranted an admonition with conditions.
- Before the beginning of a hearing by Zoom, a judge, not realizing others had joined the meeting, used a derogatory word to refer to a party. The comment was overheard by others at the Zoom hearing, including the party's attorney. The judge showed remorse, immediately apologized, and self-reported his conduct to the Board. The Board found violations of Rules 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 2.2 (Impartiality and Fairness), and 2.8(B) (Demeanor).
- A judge self-reported that a Judicial Branch audit showed that the judge and the judge's staff engaged in inappropriate Microsoft Lync messages which contained negative comments about attorneys and parties appearing before the Court. The messages could be considered harmful to the reputation and business of the Judicial Branch. The Board found violations of Rules 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary); 2.2 (Impartiality and Fairness); 2.8(B) (Decorum and Demeanor); and 2.12 (Supervisory Duties).
- A judge made statements to a parent in a custody matter that were abusive, accusatory, and inappropriate. The judge retired and agreed to never serve as a Retired Judge Subject to Recall, commonly known as a “Senior Judge.” The Board found violations of Rules 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 2.2 (Impartiality and Fairness), and 2.8(B) (Demeanor).

Letters of Caution Issued in 2021

- The Board cautioned two judges that “liking” the page of a candidate for public office could be construed as support or opposition of a candidate for public office and could violate Rules 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 1.3 (Avoiding Abuse of the Prestige of Judicial Office), and 4.1(A)(3) (Endorse or Oppose a Candidate for Public Office) of the Code of Judicial Conduct. The Board encouraged the judges to monitor and maintain strict privacy settings on their Facebook accounts.
- The Board advised a judge that when a judge oversteps the judge’s role in settlement negotiations, the judge’s view of the matter may be altered, and the judge may appear to the lawyers or parties to be coercing a settlement. In addition, unconventional acts, such as meeting with parties outside of the courthouse and personally assisting in the division of property, could easily give rise to ex parte communications or risk the judge becoming a witness. The Board cautioned the judge that the judge’s conduct in settlement negotiations could violate Rules 1.1 (Compliance with the Law), 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 2.2 (Impartiality and Fairness), and 2.6(B) (Right to Be Heard) of the Code of Judicial Conduct.
- The Board cautioned a judge to avoid post-hearing exchanges with only one party, regarding the minor details of an order, because such exchanges could violate Rules 1.2 (Promoting Confidence in the Judiciary), 2.2 (Impartiality and Fairness), 2.6(A) (Right to Be Heard), and 2.9(A) (Ex Parte Communications) of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

PUBLIC INQUIRIES

The staff receives frequent inquiries about judges’ conduct. The inquiries are often from parties involved in court proceedings. Callers are provided information about the Board and how to file a complaint.

Board staff often receives requests for information, complaints that concern persons over whom the Board has no jurisdiction, and complaints that do not allege judicial misconduct. Callers are given appropriate referrals when other resources are available.

ADVISORY OPINIONS

The Board is authorized to issue advisory opinions on proper judicial conduct with respect to the provisions of the Code. The Board encourages judges who have ethical questions to seek its guidance. The Board provides three types of advisory opinions:

- The Board issues formal opinions on issues that frequently arise. These opinions are of general applicability to judges.
- A Board opinion letter is given to an individual judge on an issue that requires consideration by the full Board.
- The Board's Executive Secretary issues informal opinions to judges as delegated by the Board pursuant to Board Rule 1(e)(11). Judges regularly contact the Executive Secretary for informal opinions on ethics questions. Depending on the nature of the request, the Executive Secretary may consult the Board Chair or another Board member.

The Board began issuing formal opinions in 2013. The Board's current practice is to ask for public comments on its proposed formal opinions before the opinions are made final. Formal opinions are sent to the chief judges of the Minnesota courts and are posted on the Board's website at <http://www.bjs.state.mn.us/formal-opinions>. The Board did not issue a formal opinion in 2021.

The Executive Secretary gave 167 informal advisory opinions to judges in 2021. This continues the trend of a significant increase over prior years, reflecting the increased assistance the Board is providing to judges who are faced with ethics issues. The opinions cover a wide range of subjects, including disqualification standards and permissible extrajudicial activities. In many cases, the judge requests the opinion by telephone and the opinion is given orally. Since 2014, however, opinions are usually confirmed by e-mail and include analysis and citation to legal authority.

BUDGET

The Board's current base budget is $455,000 per year, which is used to pay staff salaries, rent, and other expenses. The staff consists of the Executive Secretary, a part-time staff attorney, and an executive assistant.

In addition, a special account funded at $125,000 per year is potentially available to the Board to pay the expenses of major cases, which often require the Board to retain private counsel, resulting in significant expenditures for attorney fees.
