

VOTING WITH A CRIMINAL RECORD

////////////////////////////////////

Your criminal record does NOT affect your right to vote in Minnesota unless you are currently incarcerated serving a felony conviction sentence.

VOTING AFTER A FELONY CONVICTION

You can vote if you are not currently incarcerated for a felony sentence, if you are on probation or parole, or if your felony conviction did not include incarceration.

As long as you are not incarcerated, you can vote. You will need to register to vote. It is best to register before Election Day, but it is not required.

Visit mnvotes.gov to register, or call 1-877-600-VOTE for help.

NOT SURE ABOUT YOUR LEGAL STATUS?

If you have any questions about your eligibility to vote following a criminal conviction, contact the Secretary of State's Office.
