

Senate Committee Jurisdictions – 2021

The following list shows the jurisdiction of each standing committee of the Senate, as shown by the state agencies, confirmations, and other laws over which the committee has jurisdiction. This list will be used as the primary basis for making bill referrals on introduction. Where a bill deals with issues under the jurisdiction of more than one committee, it will normally be referred first to the committee of primary concern, from which it may be referred to additional committees.

No list can dictate the proper committee of first reference for all bills, especially bills dealing with complex or sensitive issues of public policy. Questions about references should normally be worked out between the author and the affected committee chairs, in consultation with the President and the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration as necessary. A Rule 4 objection can be made when consultation fails to resolve the disagreement.

The jurisdictions of budget committees are shown on pages 35 to 36. Budget committee jurisdictions are not used for the purpose of making referrals on introduction unless a bill contains only budget provisions.

Judiciary and Public Safety Finance and Policy Committee

The Judiciary and Public Safety Finance and Policy Committee has jurisdiction over all bills relating to crime prevention, law enforcement, criminal justice, juvenile delinquency, crime victims, public safety, corrections, and the collateral consequences of criminal convictions. This includes all felonies and gross misdemeanors. Bills containing misdemeanor provisions and matters that are distinct from but relate to criminal acts may be rereferred to the committee. Bills that contain provisions relating to criminal records and data, and the judicial processes applicable to certain proceedings that are noncriminal but are collateral or parallel to criminal proceedings (for example, expungements and forfeitures) may require separate referrals to both the Judiciary and Public Safety Finance and Policy Committee and the Civil Law and Data Practices Committee. In general, the committee does not have primary jurisdiction over the traffic code (Minn. Stat., chapter 169) drivers' licenses, the State Patrol, or game and fish violations. However, bills relating to these subjects are often re-referred to the committee.

The primary statutory chapters within the committee's jurisdiction are: 152, 169A, 241-244, 260B, 299A-299C, 299F, 299N, 364, 590, and 609-643.
