SECRETARY'S REPORT

This year the State Agricultural Society presented the 101st State Fair since the admission of Minnesota to statehood. This discounts the Fairs that were canceled due to war or polio and the Territorial Fairs held prior to the time Minnesota became a state.

For the eighth consecutive year more than a million admissions are reported. The total attendance of 1,070,204 is the fifth largest in history and enables the Minnesota State Fair to maintain its position as the largest 10 day exposition on the American Continent; only fairs running 16 to 18 days have exceeded its attendance record.

The 1962 Fair was not blessed with what could be termed "good Fair weather." Rain fell sometime during the day on no less than six days of the Fair and really came down on Thursday when it became necessary to cancel the stock car races. The attendance remained fairly stable in comparison with former years. On the second Saturday the attendance of 143,263 was an all-time record for that day. Further and more complete details are included in the daily summary to follow.

As predicted after the 1961 Fair and again at the Annual Meeting one year ago, it became necessary to obtain more money for the physical maintenance and upkeep of the plant. In order to keep pace with the ever increasing costs of supplies, labor, maintenance and materials, etc., and in order to maintain the grounds at the high standard demanded by patrons and exhibitors it was necessary to increase the admission price at the outside gates from 50c to 75c. It should be pointed out that your Minnesota State Fair was one of the last fairs in the country to increase its outside gate prices. Many fairs are charging $1.00 at the outside gate. It was not until after considerable study and correspondence with other fairs that the Board decided to make this increase at the outside gate. The fee for admission of automobiles remained at $1.00. The parking fee in the lot south of Como Avenue again was fifty cents.

It was necessary to close the vehicular gates for a short period on the second Sunday afternoon, but there was no time when parking space was not available in the lot south of Como Avenue. Following the heavy rains on Thursday considerable difficulty was had with the various parking lots on the Fairgrounds. The mud made many of the lots unuseable and without special efforts on the part of the Grounds Department these lots would not have been available for use on the weekend. If the heavy rains on Thursday had come on Friday or Saturday it would have caused the Fair to lose thousands of dollars in revenue because of the unuseable condition of these parking lots. It should be pointed out that considerable work has been done to these lots since the 1962 Fair and more remains to be done to them before next years' Fair to insure against unfavorable weather conditions.

As usual the commercial exhibits, farm implement displays and concessions were of a high standard. Every exhibit facility was strained to the utmost to accommodate a record number of exhibits. In many departments it was necessary to return late entries because of lack of facilities for them.

Mention was made in this report last year of the possibility of moving the Tourist Camp Grounds to a new location south of Como Avenue. To do this brings about many problems of city supervision as that part of the Fair's property is within the city limits of St. Paul. Consequently it was decided to fence off additional space along Snelling Avenue and expand the present Tourist Camp to a more uniform shape to accommodate house trailers and tents. With this addition and improvement, the Tourist Camp worked out very satisfactorily and many letters of congratulations were received from Fair visitors who were occupants of the Camp.

The closing of the streets in the central section of the grounds to vehicular traffic from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. was continued again this year and truck drivers were prohibited from making deliveries after 11:00 a.m. each day. This improvement has proved to be very satisfactory the past two years and it is much appreciated by the public as well as the concessionaires and exhibitors.

The operation of the free shuttle bus service which took patrons from the perimeter parking lots to the center of the grounds was continued and enlarged. In addition a "sight-seeing train" carried passengers on a specific route which passed within a block of all principal buildings and was a welcome addition for many "foot weary" Fair visitors. The successful handling of the Fairs great assemblage of people and automobiles is a tribute to the Planning Committee of the Board, to the architectural staff, to the "know how" of the Public Safety Department as well as a willing and capable group of 120 Explorer Scouts. It would seem that the traffic situation can ride on a fairly even keel until such time as the Minnesota Highway Department begins to claim land for the development of the Snelling Avenue Freeway which will make necessary the abandonment of the Como-Snelling pedestrian entrance as well as other drastic changes along Snelling Avenue. Until such time as more detailed plans are available from the Highway Department, it is impossible to determine where a new entrance should be placed but these changes are imminent in the near future.

A new format for the automobile race program was put into effect this year by staging five consecutive days of big car racing the first half of the Fair and five consecutive days of stock car racing the last half of the Fair rather than alternating them as in former years. This simplified many areas of the racing picture, two of which were track conditioning and publicity.

A complete new format was also used for the night grandstand show this year. The show was opened by a special one-half hour automobile thrill show staged by Trans-World Auto Daredevils and followed by a variety type show which was featured by a "name star." These personalities included Dennis Day, who appeared the first three nights; Jane Russell, the second three nights, and Jimmy Dean, the last four nights. Warren Covington orchestra, supporting acts, chorus numbers and fireworks were the same each night. This innovation was considered very successful and the increased receipts of nearly 30% indicated that it was.

Many of the Fairgrounds facilities were used throughout the year by many different organizations and associations. In addition to such events as the Shrine Showde, horse sale, Holy Name Rally, FFA spring conference, 4-H Club, one event of special interest was held this year. A gigantic Bean Feed staged by the Democratic Farmer-Labor Party was held in the Hippodrome and Livestock Pavilion last fall with President John F. Kennedy the featured speaker. Portable seats were set up in the arena area of the Hippodrome to accommodate the large number of people. It is estimated that more than 20,000 people attended this rally, 16,000 in the Hippodrome and an overflow of approximately 4,000 in the adjacent Livestock Pavilion. Loudspeakers and a special monitor television screen was placed in the Livestock Pavilion for the overflow crowd.

In keeping with the space age the 1962 Minnesota State Fair presented several "space age" attractions. They included a "Man in Space Show" which was a large plastic dome 70 feet high containing exhibits and pictures of man's travel in space and a replica of the lunar space ship which is proposed to be the first one to land man on the moon; a replica of the Mercury Space Capsule in which John Glenn made his orbital flight was in the 4-H Building; a special space kitchen by the Whirlpool Corporation showing the methods of serving meals in outer space and eating during extended periods of weightlessness; and the Nike anti-attack missile which was in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building.

The Space Rentals Department had a very spectacular year with a complete sellout of all commercial exhibit and farm machinery space. The Fair encourages the sale of food items at reasonable prices. Sandwiches, drinks, meals and miscellaneous items that supply the necessary wants of the people or that add to their comfort or pleasure are under rigid inspection by state authorities at all times. From the largest dining hall down to the smallest food purveyor, highest standards are set for the protection of the public.

Again, the Fair received no appropriation from the state for any purpose and the entire cost of staging the Fair with its attendant costs of maintenance and improvement of the plant was financed from current receipts. It is apparent that the Fair can no longer continue to make capital improvements to its plant out of its earnings. It is inevitable that we will have to request funds for these improvements (if they are to be obtained) from the State Legislature. An operation of ten days duration which is dependent entirely on the mercy of the weather presents many dangers and points up the importance of an adequate cash reserve for emergencies.

Total operating receipts of $1,547,342.58 represent an increase over the 1961 receipts as well as the figure anticipated in the budget. This is largely due to the increase in admission prices at the outside gate.

Operating expenses of $1,411,752.60 is more than the amount anticipated in the budget and also more than in 1961. This was due in a large measure to storm damage and increased wages.

The sum of $45,829.32 was expended for additions and improvements to structures. Of this amount the largest item was $19,855.79 for the new concrete retaining wall surrounding the race track. It is estimated that the additional height provided by this wall saved the lives of at least two race car drivers during the 1962 Fair. Other items are $2,172.56 for improvements and show cases in the Education Building; $9,824.72 for refinishing and modernizing the Space Rentals Office and the Grounds Superintendents Office. In addition, $2,116.00 was spent for the moving and outfitting of a small building to the Boy Scout Camp area which was used for a shower room by the boys and men who handle the parking of automobiles during Fair Week.

The painting program of $10,274.23 included painting the front of the East Room, lower Grandstand, Sanitation Department, Police Station, Mink Building roof, the metal trim on the Horse Barn and Cattle Barn and other miscellaneous minor jobs.

The amount expended for repairs to structures was $66,955.04. Although this was more than the amount expended in 1961 it was very close to the amount budgeted for this item. Most of this money was used to repair and rejuvenate many of the roofs on the buildings. These were the first extensive roof repairs undertaken in several years and due to the hail damage of this year it is estimated that another $50,000 will be needed for repairs to these roofs again next year.

Premiums amounted to $238,851.04. This figure is under the budget by $3,750.00 but greater than in 1961 by nearly $3,500.00.

At the close of the fiscal year the cash balance of the Society was $414,473.78, an increase over the cash balance at the end of 1961 fiscal year when it was $357,994.56. It should be pointed out that although this cash balance is more than it was a year ago or two additional days of rain could have greatly reduced this cash balance to an amount which would be inadequate to finance the preparation of the opening of the Fair. Every effort must be made to increase this cash balance as an insurance against adverse weather conditions which could be encountered.

A resume of the day by day events of the 1962 Minnesota State Fair follows:

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24

PREPARATION DAY

Following a heavy rain on Thursday the morning dawned cool and cloudy with the temperatures in the low 60's. Intermittent light showers were predicted for the day.

Time trials for the speedway type automobile races were held in front of the Grandstand during the afternoon.

The Horse Show equestrian classes were judged during the afternoon in the Hippodrome.

The members of the board and department superintendents of the Fair were guests of the Minneapolis Tribune at a luncheon held on the Fairgrounds.

At 5:00 p.m. a 25c outside gate charge was made to the general public in an effort to reduce the number of sight-seers who interfere with the last minute preparation of concessionaires and exhibitors. Authorized persons were given special passes into the grounds. Preparation day attendance is not included in the total attendance figures of the Fair.

"On the hoof" judging of the steers for the beef carcass contest was held and the animals immediately transferred to South St. Paul for slaughter and carcass judging. The winning carcass was returned to the Meat Exhibits Building for exhibition.

The annual preview of the Royal American Shows was held for the benefit of the press and the public during the evening.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25

DAIRY PRINCESS AND AUTO RACE DAY

It was cool and clear in the morning, warming up to 77 degrees in the afternoon.

Judging started at 8:00 a.m. with the judging of poultry in the Poultry Building, wool in the Sheep Building and market and live carcass barrows in the Swine Building. The English style Horse Show was presented in the Hippodrome in both the afternoon and evening.

The Princess Kay contestants were present at the Dairy Cattle Showmanship Contest which was staged in the Hippodrome in the morning.

The Minnesota Gladiolus Society Show opened in the morning in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building.

The Russian-Yugoslav dancers appeared at the Pioneer Portrait Log Cabin in the afternoon.

The afternoon grandstand races were marred by a fatal accident in which California driver Don Johns was killed and Harvey Konkell, a driver from West Allis, Wisconsin, was critically burned. Konkell has since recovered and was released from the hospital. This tragic accident, however, was only the second auto racing fatality in 23 years at the Minnesota State Fair.

In the evening just prior to the opening of the grandstand revue, Princess Kay of the Milky Way was crowned. She was Kathleen Hjelle of Argyle.

The All Star night show which followed and which was presented every night of the Fair featured Warren Covington and his orchestra, the Chainé Dancers, Ted Miller and Smiley, the Nerveless Nocks as well as many other outstanding comedy and thrill acts. A beautiful fireworks display commemorating the State of Minnesota and its 10,000 lakes made a spectacular finale to the show. This year for the first time, a completely new format was used. A featured star was used as a headliner each night. The first three nights Dennis Day headed the bill; the second three nights it was Jane Russell and the last four nights featured Jimmie Dean.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 26

AVIATION, VETERANS AND AUTO RACE DAY

It was clear and cool all day long with a high of 80 degrees reached at 2:00 p.m. Although the attendance of better than 140,000 was the third largest opening Sunday in the history of the Fair it was not necessary to close the gates to automobile traffic at any time during the day. This was due to the increased parking facilities across Como Avenue from the Fairgrounds and the outstanding job performed by the Public Safety Department in handling the traffic and the Boy Scouts who did the parking.

The Minnesota Flying Farmers in cooperation with the St. Paul Junior Chamber of Commerce conducted a mass "State Fair Fly In." Bus service was provided by the Fair to and from Holman Field for this annual event.

The Rev. Phillip R. Whitaker conducted non-denominational worship services at the Farm Boys Camp.

At noon a reunion of former National 4-H Conference delegates was held at the 4-H Building. A "get-together" for veterans of all wars as well as special guests from the "Old Soldiers Home" was held at the Pioneer Portrait Hall.

A special Songfest was held at the 4-H Building in the evening.

Afternoon and evening Horse Shows were held in the Hippodrome featuring gaited horses, jumpers and hunters.

The afternoon grandstand featured IMCA championship speedway car races as well as variety circus acts.

The evening grandstand show was preceded with a special one half hour automobile thrill show presented by Trans World Auto Daredevils. This special new added attraction was presented the remaining nights of the Fair prior to each night show. This new innovation proved very satisfactory and it is planned to continue the same format for 1963.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27

CHILDREN'S EDUCATIONAL RECOGNITION, LIVESTOCK, THRILL SHOW AND AUTO RACE DAY

The day was very hot and humid. The temperature reached 94 degrees at 3:00 p.m. with the humidity at 96%.

The annual free Children's Day program in front of the Grandstand in the morning was put on before a near capacity crowd. The program featured singers Bobby Vinton, Joe Dowell, Leroy Van Dyke and Diane Emond as well as Mark Wilson, star of the TV program "Magic Land of Alakazam" and clowns Emmett Kelly, Jr., and Carl Marx. The program was concluded with the ever-popular daylight fireworks.

The judging programs in all livestock departments got into full swing.

The oral and written quiz contests of the Education Department were held in Lee Auditorium in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building. Special recognition was given to outstanding Minnesota educators. Their day started with an educational recognition luncheon in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building followed by a complete tour of the Fairgrounds and a special banquet dinner at the St. Paul Hotel at which Governor Andersen spoke. Following the banquet, they were special guests of the Fair at the evening grandstand show where they were introduced to the people and awarded special tribute for their many years of service to the educational program of Minnesota.

President A. E. Thompson spoke at the Farm Boys Camp assembly on "What is the Minnesota State Fair."

The afternoon grandstand featured IMCA championship speedway car races as well as special automobile thrill acts by the Trans World Auto Daredevils.

The evening grandstand show featured the last performance of Dennis Day at the Minnesota State Fair.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28

MINNEAPOLIS, CONSERVATION AND AUTO RACE DAY

The day started hot, humid and overcast with rain forecast by early afternoon. Rain did arrive by 1:00 p.m. and periodic showers continued until 3:20 p.m. causing a delay of the afternoon speedway car races at the grandstand. Fortunately the races were completed between showers. Intermittent rain continued throughout the late afternoon and evening hours.

Judging continued in all the livestock departments.

Governor Elmer L. Andersen addressed an assembly at the Farm Boys Camp.

The 4-H Key Award Luncheon was held at the Student Center at the Institute of Agriculture.

The first section of the dress revue program was held in the 4-H Building in the afternoon.

The evening Horse Show continued in the Hippodrome.

Despite the inclement weather the evening grandstand show continued with the same basic show except with a new featured star. The featured star was Jane Russell who was to appear the next three nights. Immediately following her act the sky broke loose and it was necessary to speed up the shooting of the fireworks.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29

DULUTH, IOWA, IMPLEMENT DEALERS AND AUTO RACE DAY

It was a cool, clear morning with showers predicted for late afternoon or evening. Towards the middle of the morning it clouded over and looked more and more like rain as the day progressed. A light drizzle fell at the close of the afternoon grandstand show, but did not last too long.

Open class livestock judging was concluded in all departments except the Horse Show.

Special events of the day were the Safe Tractor Driving Contest sponsored by the Minnesota JayCees and Minnesota Implement Dealers Association; the second section of the dress revue in the 4-H Building; a performance of the Checkerboard Dancers from Mabel, Minnesota, at the Pioneer Building; and the Farm Boys Camp assembly which was addressed by W. J. Kortemaki.

A special event in the evening was the Share the Fun Festival at Erickson Hall in the 4-H Building.

Members of the Board of the Minnesota Implement Dealers Association were guests of the State Fair Board at luncheon. A special plaque was presented to Mr. Loyal Jones, President of the Implement Dealers Association. The Implement Dealers were guests of the Fair at the night grandstand show.

The afternoon grandstand show featured the concluding day of IMCA speedway car races. In addition to a 50 lap feature, the program included a special Minnesota State Championship race for drivers and cars whose owners were residents of Minnesota. Governor Andersen awarded the trophy to the winner, Jerry Daniels.

Prior to the evening grandstand show the St. Paul Dog Training Club presented a special demonstration and the winners of the Safe Tractor Driving Contest held earlier in the day were introduced and presented with their awards.

The evening Horse Show continued in the Hippodrome and was featured by a special appearance of Jane Russell.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30

TERRITORIAL PIONEERS, THRILL SHOW AND STOCK CAR RACE

Heavy thundershowers which started late Wednesday night continued through the night and early morning. The prediction was for the rain to continue through the day and night. The steady rain throughout the morning caused the cancellation of the stock car races scheduled for the afternoon grandstand show.

Officers and Directors of the Minnesota Livestock Breeders Association were guests of the State Fair Board for breakfast, following which the Board of Livestock Breeders held a regular meeting.

Special events of the day included an assembly at the Farm Boys Camp at which the speaker was Don Cassidy, Group Promotion Director of the Minnesota Twins; the Checkerboard Square Dancers appeared at the Pioneer Building; at noon a picnic was held for all the Territorial Pioneer members at the Territorial Pioneer Building. A special dress revue program was staged at the 4-H Building in the afternoon.

All open class livestock was released in the afternoon in order to prepare and disinfect the barns for the arrival of the junior livestock scheduled to arrive the following day.

The senior stakes of the English type Horse Show was featured in the Hippodrome.

The St. Paul Dog Training Club presented another performance drill at the grandstand prior to the night show. The night grandstand show was hampered by intermittent showers throughout the evening.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31

CHILDREN'S, LEGISLATIVE-EDITORIAL, RADIO-TV, STATE

DEPARTMENTS, ST. PAUL AND STOCK CAR RACE DAY

Rain continued throughout the night and early morning hours. The temperature at 6:00 a.m. was 56 degrees and the humidity was 98%. At 9:30 a.m. it was still raining and the weather caused revision of certain acts in the morning Children's free grandstand program. This special program featured singing stars Freddie Cannon, Diane Emond and Jo Ann Campbell plus other acts from the night grandstand show and daylight fireworks.

An open house was held for legislators, editors, radio and television personnel at the Publicity Department Headquarters. They were guests of the Fair for lunch as well as the afternoon and evening grandstand shows.

The arrival of junior livestock started early in the morning and continued up until noon. Again this year the judging of the FFA cattle began at 5:00 p.m. in the Hippodrome.

Special events of the day included the initial appearance of the All-State Youth Orchestra on Machinery Hill. This orchestra was made up of top musicians from high schools throughout the state selected by their music teachers.

The afternoon grandstand show featured the IMCA late model races with a 100 lap feature. The night grandstand show marked the initial appearance of Jimmy Dean who was to be the headliner of the show the last four nights of the Fair.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

4-H CLUB, FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA AND

STOCK CAR RACE DAY

It was clear and warm all day with a high temperature of 80 degrees at 2:00 p.m. The rain of the previous day left the parking areas in very bad condition and made many of them impossible to park in. With the special efforts of all departments we were able to accommodate all vehicles that entered the grounds. Had the rains of the preceeding day been 24 hours later it would have caused the Fair to lose thousands of dollars in revenue because we would have been unable to accommodate the cars in the limited parking areas that were useable.

Judging of the 4-H and FFA sheep, poultry and livestock were in full swing in all the livestock buildings.

Special events of the day included an Honor Camper Stunt Show at the Farm Boys Camp, Danish folk dancers demonstration at the Pioneer Building and the appearance of the All State Youth Orchestra in Machinery Hill Park.

The afternoon grandstand featured the IMCA late model stock car 200 lap race.

Preliminary to the night grandstand show King Agassiz II was introduced. This marked the second appearance of headliner Jimmy Dean.

The first Western Horse Show of the 1962 Fair was staged in the Hippodrome to a large crowd.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

WISCONSIN AND STOCK CAR RACE DAY

The day dawned clear and warm with a temperature forecast to be in the mid-eighties. Weather forecasters were also predicting showers for later in the day which never materialized until late in the evening.

Non-denominational worship services were held at the Farm Boys Camp by Dr. Alton E. Snyder of St. Paul.

Secretary-general manager D. K. Baldwin took ill in the morning and upon his doctor's suggestion was taken to Midway Hospital for observation. Assistant Secretary John E. Libby was named Acting Secretary-General Manager for the interim period by the Board at their meeting that day.

Special events of the day included the judging of Arabian Horses in the Horse Barn; the opening of the Minnesota Dahlia Society Show in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building; the White Bear Lake High School square dancers' appearance at the Pioneer Building; and the final appearance of the All State Youth Orchestra in Machinery Hill Park.

It was necessary to close all gates to vehicular traffic for a period of two and a half hours in the afternoon but at no time was it necessary to close the large parking lot across Como Avenue.

The afternoon grandstand show featured IMCA late model stock car race with a 250 lap feature.

The largest crowd since prior to World War II enjoyed the night grandstand show starring Jimmy Dean.

The western Horse Show staged in the Hippodrome continued for afternoon and evening performances.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

LABOR DAY AND STOCK CAR RACE DAY

It was a cool, cloudy day with intermittent rain showers early in the morning. Rain was also predicted for late afternoon or early evening. At 6:00 p.m. the wind shifted to the northwest and became quite strong and by 7:15 it had brought rain and very cold weather which curtailed many evening activities of the Fair and definitely hurt the attendance at the night grandstand show.

Quarter horses and Palomino horses were judged in the Hippodrome and Morgan horses in the Horse Barn. FFA market swine were judged in the Swine Building.

Special events of the day included a 4-H livestock demonstration and presentation of the Herdsmanship Trophy in the Sheep Barn; and a recognition assembly at the Farm Boys Camp. The Swedish and South American folk dancers also appeared at the Pioneer Buildings in the afternoon.

The afternoon grandstand show featured the "North Star 350," a late model stock car race of 350 laps.

The final Horse Show of the Fair was held in the afternoon at the Hippodrome.

ORGANIZATION

The one hundreth and third annual meeting of the State Agricultural Society was held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs on January 8, 9 and 10 at the Hotel Saint Paul in St. Paul. The meeting was officially called to order the morning of January 8th and the resolutions and credentials committees were appointed. These committees met on Tuesday morning.

The opening formal meeting of the State Agricultural Society was held on Tuesday afternoon with opening remarks by President Charles Christianson and the reports of R. C. Sorenson, Treasurer, and D. K. Baldwin, Secretary-General Manager. The program was concluded by an address by the Honorable Elmer L. Andersen, Governor of the State of Minnesota, and John Gammon, Washington, Iowa, whose talk was entitled "Are We Just Monkeys in Orbit?" The report of the Credentials Committee followed.

The State Agricultural Society and the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs held their joint annual banquet that evening.

On Wednesday morning the final business session of the Society was held at which time the Resolutions Committee report was adopted and the following elections took place:

A. E. Thompson, Spicer, President, one year term.

Robert R. Andrews, Minneapolis, Vice President, two year term.

D. T. Grussendorf, Duluth, was elected from the Eighth Congressional District for a term of three years.

Anton C. Geiger, Jackson, was elected from the Second Congressional District for a term of three years.

Frank L. Mitchell, Canby, was elected from the Seventh Congressional District for a term of two years to fill the unexpired term of A. E. Thompson who had been elevated to the presidency.

Charles Christianson, retiring president, was elected Life Member of the Society.

Immediately following these elections a board meeting was held at which D. K. Baldwin was re-elected for a term of one year as Secretary-General Manager and Roy C. Sorenson was re-elected for a term of one year as Treasurer. The standing committees of the board and most of the department superintendents were then appointed.

FINANCES

PART I—BALANCE SHEET

Resources and Liabilities

Real Estate—$9,312,959.87. This is an increase over the 1961 figure and is discussed in more detail earlier in this report. Of the total real estate figure $563,745.66 is credited to land value. $29,661.90 was added to the land figure by the extensive grading and improvements to the parking lots since the Fair of this past year. This figure actually would be almost double if we had contracted the work done, rather than doing it ourselves.

Electric Plant—$231,885.98. This shows a decrease of approximately $3,000 under last year due to the fact that the depreciation of 5% or $11,778.58 exceeded the amount expended for improvements which was $8,093.06.

Personal Property—$154,278.12. This figure shows an increase of approximately $7,000 over the 1961 figure.

Inventories      Post War Planning — $22,666.86. This figure includes $459.66 in postage on the meter machine.

Cash—$414,473.78 of which $413,373.78 is in the General Fund of the Society and $1,000.00 in the Contingent Fund. This cash balance represents an increase of approximately $57,000 over 1961.

Accounts Receivable—$20,337.25. This figure is practically the same as last year.

Total Resources of the Society—$10,165,640.20. It is generally conceded that this figure is less than half, probably about one-third of the replacement cost. It is interesting to note that about 38% of the book value of the Society's resources has come from appropriations and 62% from the actual earnings of the Society.

PART II—OPERATING STATEMENT

The Operating Statement includes only the receipts and disbursements directly accruing from and to the operation and staging of the 1962 State Fair and the maintenance of the real estate and other properties of the Society during the fiscal year.

Operating Income—$1,547,342.58. As stated earlier in this report this increase over the budget as well as the 1961 figure is largely due to the increase in admission prices at the outside gate.

Operating Expense—$1,411,752.60. This figure is over the amount proposed in the budget but it must be kept in mind that the two hail storms of 1962 caused damage which was not anticipated at the time of the budget meeting.

Net Operating Gain—$135,589.98. This is below the operating gain of last year but much larger than the amount anticipated in the budget for this year.

It cannot be said too often that good business practice points to the necessity of maintaining an adequate cash reserve to cope with possible adverse weather conditions and to provide necessary working capital to operate and maintain a plant of such a size and magnitude.

No report of the 1962 Minnesota State Fair would be complete without giving due recognition and credit to the press, radio and television people of the state in the presentation of the programs of the Fair to the people.

Nor would any report be complete without giving full credit to the thousands of volunteer workers and participants, the superintendents of the various departments and their staffs who by their wholehearted dedication to the staging of the Fair play a very vital part in the operation of it. To them and for their efforts the Board extends a most heartfelt thanks and sincerely pledges to them that it will in the future strive to be worthy of their continued support and interest.

With the passing of Doug Baldwin we at the Minnesota State Fair as well as his many associates throughout the Fair industry have lost a true friend, an outstanding leader, a fine citizen and a great American.

It is with a great deal of regret that this report must be made in his absence. His worth to this institution cannot possibly be measured, and his untimely death has left an irreplaceable void in the affairs of the Society.

MINNESOTA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

January 7, 8, 9, 1963

HOTEL RADISSON

Minneapolis, Minnesota

MONDAY MORNING SESSION

January 7, 1963

Minnesota State Agricultural Society

The Annual Meeting of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society, held at the Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, Minnesota, was called to order at 11:00 o'clock in the Flame Room, President Albert E. Thompson, presiding.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Thank you, Mr. Kelsey. The 104th Annual Meeting of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society will now come to order.

I am happy to see so many of you here this morning. You all look bright-eyed and bushy-tailed and ready for some good meetings today, tomorrow, and Wednesday.

The only action we have this morning is the caucusing of the various districts and the selection of a member to the Credentials Committee and the Resolutions Committee. The Agricultural Society Credentials Committee will meet in the La Salle "A" Room at 11 o'clock a.m., tomorrow morning, and the Resolutions Committee will meet in the Danish Room at 11 o'clock a.m., tomorrow morning.

The Secretary of the Federation of County Fairs, Mr. Ransom, has mentioned about the redistricting and I want to read to you, before you begin your caucusing, a bulletin here, and there will be some copies to be distributed among you:

"A special session of the 1961 Minnesota State Legislature enacted a bill re-apportioning the State's Congressional Districts. This Legislation reduces the number of Congressional Districts in Minnesota from nine to eight and re-aligns a number of counties within this framework.

After much consideration as to the effects of this re-apportionment upon the State Agricultural Society, the Board of Managers of the Society have expressed the opinion that the Society should not re-align in accordance with the State ruling for the following reasons:

First, to do so would reduce the amount of rural representation within the Society and, since the Society by its very nature is primarily agricultural, it wishes to keep a proper balance between urban and rural representation.

Second, the Federation of County Fairs, through a change in their by-laws, will stay at the nine district alignment and thus a change by the Agricultural Society would cause a basic conflict between these two interacting organizations.

Steps have already been taken towards the introduction of a bill in this session of the State Legislature which would "freeze" the representation within the Society at the nine district level. This action was instigated with the full knowledge and approval of both the Governor and Attorney General. Attorney General Mondale has made reference to an opinion given in 1933 by the Attorney General's Office when the State re-apportioned from ten to nine districts, stating that pending such legislative action the Society was within its rights to maintain its present level of districts and boundaries."

In accordance with that, the various districts will caucus in the same manner as we have done for the past many years and each district will elect or select your member to the Credentials Committee and to the Resolutions Committee.

I believe that we can all caucus in this room, starting from District Number One, Two, Three and around the room. And unless there is anything further, Mr. Kelsey, they can proceed to caucus at this time, and as soon as you have elected your chairman of your caucus and your secretary you will designate them on the various cards that will be presented to you and return them to this table immediately after caucusing so we can announce the members of the two committees, the Credentials and the Resolutions Committee. So, we will proceed to caucus at this time.

(A brief recess was taken.)

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: I will call on Secretary John Libby to read you the names of the various committees.

SECRETARY LIBBY: I will name the Credentials Committee first. The Credentials Committee will meet tomorrow morning, 11:00 o'clock, in the La Salle Room.

. . . Secretary Libby read the names of those selected for the Credentials Committee and Resolutions Committee as follows: . . .

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE, MINNESOTA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY:

1st District, Ray Goodwin; 2nd District, Anton C. Geiger; 3rd District, George Rerat; 4th District, Flora K. Luedke; 5th District, Robert R. Andrews; 6th District, Marion Reinert; 7th District, Tanner Jacobson; 8th District, Robert McCarthy; 9th District, Barney Ross. . .

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE, MINNESOTA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY:

1st District, Lawrence Mussell; 2nd District, Art Laufenberger; 3rd District, E. K. Irvine; 4th District, Tony Schmidt; 5th District, I. B. Byers; 6th District, Bill Dorsey; 7th District, L. A. Hons; 8th District, Eugene Swenson; 9th District, Paul Sorenson. . .

The Resolutions Committee will meet tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the Danish Room.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: And to repeat, the members of these committees will meet tomorrow morning; the Credentials Committee in La Salle "A" at 11 o'clock a.m., and the Resolutions Committee in the Danish Room.

I too want to mention at this time, and I think it is most urgent, if you require banquet tickets it would be of great help to the management, the hotel management as well as the officers of the Federation, if you will secure your tickets as soon as possible.

And with that, the meeting of the State Agricultural Society will be adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. Kelsey?

. . . There being no further business, the meeting was regularly adjourned. .

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

January 8, 1963

State Agricultural Society

. The meeting was convened at 2:00 p.m., President Thompson presiding. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Ladies and gentlemen: It is now approximately five after two, and the 104th annual meeting of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society will reconvene.

On behalf of the officers and the board of governors of this Society, I extend greetings to each of you present this afternoon. And although we have progressed one week in the new year, I am sure it is not too late to extend to each of you best wishes for a most happy and prosperous new year. Also, a wish that your 1963 county fair will be the greatest in the history of your fair.

At this time, I will deviate from the printed program for a few moments. This 104th annual meeting of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society is being held under a shroud of profound grief and sadness. According to the records, no previous president has been required to preside under similar circumstances, and I assure you it is most difficult.

Doug Baldwin devoted his entire life to this Society and the Minnesota State Fair. His service and devotion total 56 years, which is greater than one-half the life history of this Society. During the past, more than a decade, it has been my privilege and pleasure to work with Doug Baldwin and to learn to know him very well. I am also proud to have considered him a very close friend, and a close associate in all matters concerning the Minnesota State Fair. His passing is a deep personal loss as well as a great loss to the Fair and to the State of Minnesota.

I have met with Doug during the month of May when fair preparations are actually beginning to progress and notice how its pulse will begin to beat with the tempo of the preparations. Also, during the months of June and July, and note the increasing tempo of its pulse until it reaches a grand crescendo on the opening day of the Fair; a crescendo of perfect harmony in all departments of the Fair; everything being in perfect readiness. Then Doug was really alive and his pulse beat with the tempo of the ground. Then I have met with Doug on Tuesday following Labor Day, the day after the Fair, and noted his seemingly utter collapse; the tensions were gone; the Fair is over; the pulse is back to normal. He always appeared lonely; as lonely as the deserted buildings.

I don't know what kind of a marker they will put up for Doug, but there is a big gold-lettered sign outside the Snelling Avenue Gate that proclaims: 1963 Minnesota State Fair. August 23 to September 2. The World's Largest Ten Day Exposition." That is Doug Baldwin's real monument. At this time, I would like to ask each of you to rise in a moment of silence in memory of Doug Baldwin. (Silence.) You may be seated.

We will now return to your printed program, and I notice the first item is the opening remarks by the President, which has been a custom over these many, many years, and this year is no exception.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Today, I would like to comment on a question that, if asked of you, I am sure that I would receive the same number of varied replies as the number attending. I would like to ask the question: What is the fair? Two years ago at the Minnesota State Fair I had the pleasure of visiting with a friend of mine and he made this statement, "I wouldn't trade the opportunity to visit one state fair for all my world travels. This is America on parade. Nothing could be more interesting or exciting." Doubtless, most of us will never experience the dream of traveling in foreign lands, but we could visit our state and county fairs. Hot dogs, livestock exhibits and fruit displays, the dusty rodeo arena and the pulse pounding beat of horses hoofs, gaudy lights, roaring auto races, dancing girls, and exciting sounds and smells—That is the Fair.

About 100 million Americans will visit the some 2,500 state and county fairs that will hold the nation's spotlight this coming year from June through October. These events range in size from the smallest county fair to the Minnesota State Fair which attracts over one million people.

State, district and county fairs are as American as ham and eggs and as varied as the population of Noah's Ark. According to the records, the first real American fair was held in the village of Pittsfield, Massachusetts under the organization of the Berkshire Agricultural Society organized in 1808 with a Mr. Elkanah Watson as the first president. However, there were a number of fairs and festivals held earlier in the colonies sponsored and operated by local groups and individuals not recognized as agricultural societies. Mr. Watson, however, did not originate the idea of fairs. He merely improved on ancient practices, for fairs are almost as old as history. As long ago as 1000 B.C. a big fair was held in Mecca, a city in Arabia. Important fairs were also held in Greece, Rome, Northern Europe and the British Isles many centuries ago. All the fairs were gathering places for merchants and craftsmen to display their best wares and barter freely.

It is noted that the fair held at Mecca in Arabia during the Old Testament days was held during the season of pilgrimages; the Attendance in most years being from 200,000 to 300,000. But every 12th year, on the great pilgrimage, as many as two million attended. It is not surprising to discover in this connection that the great epidemics of cholera occurred at similar intervals.

It is supposed that the religious festivals of Egypt were fairs. Romulus and other rulers of Rome are said to have held fairs for the purpose of attracting people to Rome whenever laws were to be proclaimed or decrees issued. The Ancient Greeks held the fairs whenever there was to be a popular assembly for political reasons.

It is also noted that in the Old Testament Book of Ezekial, Chapter 27, the following mention is made of the fairs of that day:

Verse 12. "Tarish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin and lead, they traded in thy fairs."

Verse 16. "Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of thy wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate."

Verse 22. "The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold."

It is recorded that someone asked Mr. Watson to give his formula for a successful fair. "Democracy," he answered, "is the most important factor to keep in mind. Always see to it that no one is forgotten." That axiom remains fundamental. Modern fairs are as Democratic as a town meeting. There are almost as many Cadillacs and Lincolns in the parking lots as Fords, Chevrolets and nondescript heaps. Diamonds and denims mix on the common grounds. City folks often outnumber the country cousins.

The fairs hold something of interest to every member of the family. There are the champion livestock animals, prize winning poultry, colorful tapestry and exotic flowers. Kiddies go particularly for cotton candy in green and yellow shades, rides on the merry-go-round and educational exhibits. Mother likes to visit displays ranging from needlework and antique collections to pickle canning and jelly making. Father spends his time inspecting the livestock, and the farm and industrial exhibits. Everyone enjoys the marvelous exhibits in the Junior Division, the 4-H Clubs and the F.F.A.

It takes energy to see everything, and the fair provides dozens of concessions spotted strategically about the grounds to appease the thirst and appetite of the crowd. Often the concessions are run by local organizations, who donate the proceeds to charity. For instance, among other things, visitors at the Minnesota State Fair last year drank 3,500,000 cold drinks and ate 750,000 hot dogs, 450,000 hamburgers and some 2,500 gallons of mustard and pickles.

There are first aid stations too, to care for the over-indulgent and other casualties. At our recent Minnesota State Fair there were approximately 200 persons who sought relief from an aching tummy. By far the greatest number of mishaps, however, involved children, especially those who tearfully report, "I am losted."

There must also be strategically located rest rooms to accomodate the patrons of the fair, because a person in search of a rest room is certainly in no mood to buy another cold drink or another hamburger.

Winners of prizes and awards go home with a sizeable chunk of cash in their pockets. The prizes and premiums offered by the Minnesota State Fair, for instance, total $255,000.00. Why do fairs offer such awards? The money that contestants win is not only a great personal satisfaction, but it recognizes achievement, progress, and a job well done. Then, too, the awards are an inducement for farmers, 4-H'ers and F.F.A. members to improve their products each year. Actually, fairs have been invaluable in helping to build up the national economy.

Most fairs run anywhere from several days to several weeks. When it is all over, the crowd leaves the grounds a bit happier, a little wiser, and full of anticipation for next year's fair time. For nothing can take the place of the noise, the smells, the crowds, the carefree happiness and the wide variety of entertainment and education of "America on parade."

What is the trend? The ancient fairs were mostly of a religious nature; commerce, at first insignificant, came to assume a more important part. In the Middle Ages, religion was less prominent; commerce was prominent; entertainment a feature. In the 19th Century, religion as an attraction had practically disappeared; commerce shared its position with entertainment; education became a factor. In the present century, entertainment and education are the two features, and the greater of these is education. What the next stage will be is hard to predict. However, less and less inducement is necessary to bring people to a fair; they now come to see rather than to buy. Where 50 years ago it was advised to "sell the stove, if necessary, but see the fair," it is now advised to "sell the stove and buy a new one." The fairs of today do not have an immediate sale in mind but the exhibition of goods to visitors, just as in advertising, results in later sales. Expositions and exhibitions and fairs have served to take inventions out of the laboratory and to let the people know what the latest goods and services are. Thus did the public learn about the reaper, the telephone, electricity.

Fairs have gone through several changes in geographical scope; the earliest being purely local in extent. Next came regional, national, groups of neighbor nations, colonies, and international fairs. It would take a Jules Verne to say what the scope of the next fair will be; perhaps, it will be inter-planetary.

The Minnesota State Fair will be held for 10 days, closing Labor Day, in 1963. "So what?" you say. "Same old stuff." But that just isn't true. The fair is never the same. Here is why: 3,000,000 Americans—and a proportional number of people in Minnesota—never saw a fair. That is why the fairs will come back this year and next and on and on as they have for 100's of years. "Same old stuff," you say. "Same stunts, same exhibits, same clowns, same animals, same ballyhoo you saw when you were a kid." Yes, partially true, of course, but since that "same old fair" a year ago, 3,000,000 new Americans have arrived on the scene—3,000,000 more people who have never seen a fair or your business, or product, whatever it may be. And in the same interval, a million boys will reach the girl-crazy stage and start shaving the fuzz off their chins for the benefit of another million young women who have suddenly become acutely clothes and cosmetic conscious. Another two million folks will up and get married; start new homes, buy new furniture, new dishes, new cars and all the things exhibited at fairs. Some of these, and many others long married, will discover new furnishings, new ideas and gadgets and the pleasures they afford. Yesterday they were "not interested"—

Today they are and tomorrow others will be. That is why the "same old fair" marches serenely on, confident that among every bored group of people who say, "That is just the same old stuff," some new, pleased voice will say, "Oh, look, that's wonderful."

And have you ever in your life stopped to notice as the crowds come through the exhibit buildings and the cattle and hog barns at a fair, how people, not one but dozens at a time, exclaim with glee, "Oh, look at that!" Not all of them utter it aloud, but their expressions invariably reveal their delight and amazement.

You are not talking to a flock of sheep where your message isn't understood. You are talking to a passing parade that is constantly moving with new faces by the thousands coming into the picture every day. And they all love good fairs, new products, new methods, new ideas, new cars, new refrigerators, new machinery, and on and on and on. It's all very exciting and the people know it.

Because fairs are a combination of "Agriculture, Business, Entertainment and Old Home Week," presented at a moderate price, they will continue to flourish.

Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. (Applause.)

According to your printed program, the next order of business is the report of the treasurer. Our Society is no exception. We have a treasurer. He is a very good one, and he is also a Dane. Mr. Roy Sorenson.

TREASURER'S REPORT

TREASURER SORENSON: After that remark about being so good, why the heck don't you raise my salary?

Mr. President, members and friends of the Society, if you will turn to page 23, why, I will read my short report: Balance in the general fund and contingent fund as of December 1, 1961, was $357,994.56. The total cash receipts during the year: $1,567,016.93. Disbursements: $1,510,537.71. Leaving an excess of receipts over disbursements of $56,479.22. Making a cash balance as of November 30, 1962 of $414,473.78. This consists of $413,473.78 with the Treasurer of the State of Minnesota for the State Agricultural Society, and $1,000.00 in a contingent fund at the Midway National Bank of St. Paul.

I sincerely hope that we don't have to have a recount of these figures.

Mr. President, I move the adoption of this report.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Thank you, Treasurer Sorenson. You have heard the motion to approve this report. Do I hear a second.

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON (Roseau County): I second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Any further questions? All those in favor of the said motion signify by saying "Aye"; those opposed the same sign.

. . .The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The Treasurer's report is approved.

The next order of business will be the report of the Secretary and General Manager, Mr. John Libby.

REPORT OF SECRETARY

SECRETARY LIBBY: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen: If my voice will hold out, I would just like to point out a couple of highlights from this year's report, which has already been distributed among you, and suggest you study it more closely at your leisure.

The 1962 attendance of 1,070,204 marks the 8th consecutive year that the fair's attendance has exceeded one million admissions. This was accomplished in spite of increased gate from .50 to .75, and in spite of what could not be termed "good" fair weather. It was interesting to note that rain fell at some time during the day on no less than six of the ten days.

The new foremat which was used for the night grandstand show proved very successful; so successful that the largest crowds since prior to World War 1 were enjoyed; an increase of nearly 30% over 1961.

Most of the important financial figures were given to you by Mr. Sorenson in his report, but it should be noted that the net operating gain of $135,000 plus will be materially reduced when the roof repairs that were caused by the two extensive hail storms of last year have been completed. The added revenue obtained through the outside gate admission price will do little more than cover the funds necessary for these repairs.

It should also be pointed out that if any major capital improvements are to be made in the near future, it is inevitable that these funds are going to have to come from some outside source. An operation of 10 days' duration, which is entirely dependent on the weather, presents many dangers and points up the importance of an adequate reserve for emergencies.

No report of the 1962 Fair would be complete without giving due recognition and thanks to the many workers, participants, superintendents and their assistants of the various departments, and the fair's regular staff who, by their wholehearted dedication to the staging of the fair, play a very vital part in the operation of it. To them, and for their efforts, the Board extends a heartfelt thanks, and sincerely pledges that it will strive to be worthy of their continued support and interests.

It is with a great deal of regret that this report must be made in the absence of Doug Baldwin. We at the State Fair, as well as many of his associates throughout the fair industry, have lost a true friend, a great fair man, and a dedicated leader. His worth to this institution cannot possibly be measured, and his untimely passing leaves a void in the affairs of this Society which are going to be awfully hard to replace. As for myself, I considered it a very rare privilege and education and honor to have had the opportunity to be as closely associated with him as I have been in the last decade. In his absence, Mr. President, I would like to move for the approval of this report.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the Secretary and General Manager's report. It has been moved that we approve, as read, the report. Do I hear a second?

MR. FRED H. LAMMERS (Stillwater): Mr. President, I second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: It is moved and seconded that the Secretary and General Manager's report be approved as read. All in favor signify by saying "Aye"; those opposed the same sign.

...The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The report is approved.

The next order of business is the report of the Credentials Committee. Is the chairman of the Committee here, Mr. Jacobson?

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. TANNER JACOBSON (Blomkest): Mr. President, delegates and friends of the Association: This report is corrected as given with the few exceptions, namely, due to the fact that we have the difficulty of redistricting—and as I understand, from the floor will come a motion that it be left as it has been in the past, mainly, nine congressional districts. In many cases, we have had to change from the one that they stated, perhaps, to the correct one that we had in the past. There have been other minor changes which I don't believe effects it in any way.

All county fair credential blanks as corrected are certified to vote except the following:

- Blue Earth County Agricultural Society
- Cass County Agricultural Society at Pillager
- Cass County Agricultural Association at Pine River
- Cook County Agricultural Society
- Cottonwood County Agricultural Society
- St. Vincent Union Industrial Association (Kittson County)
- Koochiching County Agricultural Society at Northome
- Lake of the Woods County Fair Association
- Le Sueur County Fair Association
- Lincoln County Agricultural Society
- Mille Lacs County Agricultural Society
- Morrison County Agricultural Society at Little Falls
- Morrison County Agricultural Society at Motley
- Nicollet County Agricultural Society
- Perham Agricultural Society (Ottertail County)
- Pennington County Agricultural Society
- Pine County Agricultural Society
- Red Lake County Agricultural Society
- Rock County Agricultural Society

All State-Wide Organizations are certified to vote as corrected except the following:

- State Dairyman's Association
- Minnesota Sheep Breeders Association
- State Beekeepers Association
- Minnesota Cattle Breeders Association
- State Forestry Association
- Minnesota Saddle Horse Owners and Breeders Association
- Minneapolis Market Gardeners Association of Minnesota
- State Growers Association
- Minnesota Hereford Breeders Association
- Minnesota Red Polled Breeders Association
- Minnesota Poland China Breeders Association
- Minnesota Duroc-Jersey Breeders Association
- Minnesota Turkey Growers Association
- Minnesota Berkshire Breeders Association

We have taken the liberty to read those that are not corrected rather than read those that are corrected because they are, indeed, in less number, but there are very many at that. I believe that, this is not in condemnation, but in all sincerity, it would be very much better for those who work on the Credentials Committee, and that the credentials should, and would be better, if they would be taken care of at the proper time. It seems like there is always so many changes at the last minute.

On behalf of the nine members who worked on this Committee, I move the adoption, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the report of the Credentials Committee, ladies and gentlemen, and the motion has been made for its approval. Do I hear a second?

MR. FRANK DUNCAN (Faribault): I second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Is there any further discussion? Are you ready for the question? All those in favor of the adoption of the Credentials Committee Report please say "Aye"; those opposed the same sign.

. . .The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The Credentials Committee Report is approved as read.

Mr. Secretary, do you want to do this? I will call on the Secretary to give the explanation about your caucusing this afternoon and the place where these caucuses will be held.

SECRETARY LIBBY: In accordance with the Statutes and the Laws of the State of Minnesota, the caucuses to re-elect or elect members to the State Agricultural Society for the following congressional districts: Number One, Number Three and Number Six. . .

The First Congressional District can meet right here in the Gold Room immediately following the meeting.

District Three in the Duluth "B" Room, which is right outside and to your right on the mezzanine floor here.

And the Sixth District in the Marquette "B" Room.

Those meetings or caucuses should be held immediately following adjournment of this meeting.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Thank you, Secretary Libby.

If there is no further business to come before this meeting, then this meeting is adjourned until ten-thirty a.m. tomorrow morning.

. . .The meeting was regularly adjourned. . .

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

January 9, 1963

State Agricultural Society

. . .The meeting was convened at 10:30 a.m., President Thompson presiding. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Ladies and gentlemen: It is a pleasure for me to greet you this morning. The final meeting of the 104th Annual Meeting of the State Agricultural Society is hereby called to order.

The first order of business is the report of the Resolutions Committee. I will call on Mr. Byers of the Fifth Congressional District. He resides here in Minneapolis, and I understand he is a newly elected member of the Board of Directors of the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. I. B. BYERS (Minneapolis): Mr. President, officers and fellow delegates: It is my privilege to report the findings, or, the business that was transacted by the Resolutions Committee.

Resolution No. 1: Resolved that we express our special thanks to the Minneapolis Area Chamber of Commerce and to the Radisson Hotel for its valuable services and cooperation rendered to our 1963 Annual Meeting.

Resolution No. 2: Resolved that we acknowledge the support received from the Chamber of Commerce of Minnesota each year in promoting the welfare and success of the State Fair and county fairs.

Resolution No. 3: Resolved that we express to the Minnesota Editorial Association, the daily and weekly press, the radio and television stations of Minnesota our sincere appreciation of their efforts in publicizing the worth and scope of our various state and county fairs.

Resolution No. 4: Resolved that we endorse and continue to support the School in Fair Management so successfully conducted by the Agricultural Short Course Department of the University of Minnesota. Further, to support the action of the Federation of County Fairs to designate sites for holding regional meetings in the state.

Resolution No. 5: Resolved that we extend our thanks and appreciation to all individuals and institutions who cooperated to make the 1962 Fair, which for the eighth consecutive year reached 1,000,000 attendance, to the Board of Managers who, with D. K. Baldwin, Secretary-General Manager and the office staff, planned the strategy, to the Publicity Department for a well directed campaign, to the department superintendents and their assistants, to the Minnesota county fairs and the thousands of exhibitors, 4-H Club members, FFA members, to the various state departments for their interesting story of the state's resources and activities, to the farm equipment manufacturers and dealers for their most elaborate show, and to the multitude of commercial firms who displayed their products so effectively. All these, combined with the splendid amusement features offered, made this one of the state's great fairs.

Resolution No. 6: Resolved that the Planning Committee continue to give top priority to the construction of a new Educational Building.

Resolution No. 7: Resolved that in the death of Life Member Lee M. Shell the Society suffered a severe loss. His contribution meant much to the development of our Society.

Be it further resolved that our sympathy be extended to the members of his family and that this resolution be spread upon the Minutes of the Society.

Resolution No. 8: Be it resolved that in the passing of our Secretary-General Manager, Doug Baldwin, December 13, 1962, the Minnesota State Fair was dealt a most severe blow.

Doug Baldwin began his association with the Minnesota State Fair in 1906, when at the age of 12 he carried water to the workers at the old Hippodrome. He later worked as an office boy, member of the ground crew and timekeeper under Fair Secretaries E. W. Randall, O. N. Cosgrove, J. C. Simpson and Tom Canfield. In 1916, he was assigned permanent duty in the Entry and Publicity Departments of the State Fair by Canfield. He went into the service shortly thereafter, returning in August, 1919, when he began work in the Entry Department and organized the Fair's first Space Sales Department while remaining in charge of the Entry Department.

On August 21, 1921, he was appointed Assistant Secretary, which post he held until he was named Secretary following the retirement of Raymond A. Lee in January, 1951—with the exception of a leave of absence for American Red Cross duties from February, 1943, to December, 1946.

During the 1930's he was Secretary of the Alabama State Fair in Birmingham, commuting to Birmingham at intervals until the Minnesota State Fair was over. He would then return to Birmingham to handle the final rush of duties before that Fair opened in late fall.

He was past president of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions.

With the passing of Doug Baldwin, we of the State Agricultural Society, as well as his many associates throughout the Fair industry have lost a true friend, a great leader, and an outstanding Fairman.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread upon the Minutes of the Society.

I duly tender this report and move for its adoption.

MR. ROBERT ANDREWS (Minneapolis): I will second that motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the report of the Resolutions Committee. It has been moved that it be adopted as read, and seconded by Mr. Andrews. Any discussion? All those in favor of the approval of these resolutions signify by saying "Aye"; those opposed the same sign.

. . . The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The Resolutions Committee's report is adopted.

According to your program, the next item is a matter of unfinished business. Is there any unfinished business to come before this meeting? There being none, I will call upon our good friend, our First Vice President, Norris Carnes to take the Chair.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

MR. NORRIS K. CARNES (St. Paul): Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen: Your temporary Chairman will now entertain nominations for the office of President of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society for a term of one year, or, the year 1963.

MR. TANNER JACOBSON: Thank you, President and Mr. Carnes and friends of the Society: A year ago today this honor fell to a gentleman who has served as treasurer of our Fair for more years than I have lived in the county. Having had the pleasure of knowing the man who has served us the past year, acting myself as a President for quite a few of those years, I am not going to go back into the past years that our Treasurer gave in a nominating speech. He carried the life of Al from his youth practically up to that date. I will only go into it to this extent: Acting as our Secretary, I doubt if there is a fair in the State which has as correct records as he has kept for us; nor can any secretary know more about a fair than he does of our fair. Now, in the past year one can only look back to what one has had the privilege of seeing. Some people are drafted to an office; some aspire to it. I am quite sure that our past-year President aspired to this office. He has practically lived county fairs, and when he became a director he lived the State Agricultural Society at this Fair. I don't believe any man can contribute more to an office than the office itself carries with it. And because of the fact that Mr. Thompson is what he is, and what he has shown to you from this past year, I am very, very happy to present his name to serve us again for this coming year.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Thank you, Mr. Jacobson.

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: Mr. Chairman?

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Mr. Christianson.

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: I am very happy to support this nomination that has been put before this body by Andrew Jacobson. It was my pleasure to serve with Al 10 of the 12 years that I was on the Board, and he always gave me the impression that he was vitally interested in every facet of the Fair. In fact, outside of his job he lived this assignment, and so as he was pointing towards the presidency he had gathered a lot of information about various departments of the Fair operation, and he carried this with him as he entered his first year as president. And I know that he has continued to show a tremendous interest in the affairs of the State Agricultural Society. I am very happy at this time to support, enthusiastically, this nomination.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Thank you, Mr. Christianson. Any other nominations?

MR. NORMAN TOLLIKSON: Mr. Chairman, I consider it a privilege just to come up and be heard at this meeting and extend my appreciation to the fact that our good friend Al Thompson is being re-elected to the great position of President of the Minnesota State Fair. I feel that is one of the greatest institutions in our State, and it is an honor that has come to few men when you think of the 104 years and of the, possibly, 75 or 80 men only in the State throughout all these years that have had that privilege. And to all you men that are with us today who have served as the President, you can feel really a position of distinction.

And speaking as a layman, and one that has been interested in county fairs, being Treasurer of the Kandiyohi County Fair, of which Al is Secretary, it pleases us immensely that he has risen to that top position in fair activities. You know, no one that was even here last night has known Al as long as I have. You know, of course, he doesn't like this when I talk about it but I knew him when he wasn't really of the presidential stature. I lived east of Willmar there on a farm and Al's father's farm adjoined our farm, and way back some of you fellows may have been farmers and you remember when we used to go around and pick up milk cans; three, four farmers together would pick them up. Well, I used to handle ten-gallon cans then and I would come down to Thompson's and pick theirs up and Al would come out in his nicely pressed and neat trousers and want me to lift him up in the spring seat, the double box, because he thought that was fun to sit up there. So, whenever we get into a little discussion I tell Al, "Now, remember, after all, I am older than you. You remember the time I lifted you up on the spring seat and you wanted to sit there while I loaded the cans, see." So, we come from adjoining farms and went to the same country school, and it pleases me that Al has been renominated to that fine position.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Thank you very much, sir.

What is your pleasure? Any other nominations?

MR. FRANK L. MITCHELL (Canby): Mr. Chairman, having known Al for many years and worked with him some on the State Fair, it is my pleasure to move that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Al Thompson to serve as our president for the coming year.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: It has been moved; is there a second?

VOICE: I will second it.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: It has been moved and seconded that the nominations cease and that the Secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Mr. Al Thompson to serve as President of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society for the year 1963. All in favor signify by saying "Aye"; contrary minded, "No."

...The motion was carried...

MR. NORRIS CARNES: The Aye's have it, Al. You are elected.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Well, ladies and gentlemen: I want to say to each of you that I consider this a great honor. I have tried to do my very best the past year, and I can assure you I will continue to give it all I can. Then, of course, my good friend Norman always brings that spring seat on the wagon into the picture to remind me that I was not quite so big at one time. Of course, he would have it a little tough today to lift me up into a spring seat on the double wagon box, but over the years one also realizes that one is coming to the end of the story, so to speak. But over the years it has been, indeed, a great pleasure and an honor to serve with and work with the men on the Governing Board of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society. And I want to assure each of you that, as in the years past, 104 of them, in fact, the Minnesota State Agricultural Society and the Minnesota State Fair will continue to progress and to depict the economy of this great State of Minnesota, and it will always be considered as the greatest ten-day exposition in the world.

I thank you, ladies and gentlemen. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The next order of business is the election of a Vice President for a term of two years from the Fourth Congressional District. Mr. Secretary, do you have a report from the Fourth Congressional caucus?

SECRETARY LIBBY: Mr. President, I have a letter signed by Mr. John T. Hay, Executive Vice President of the St. Paul Area Chamber of Commerce, nominating the name of Norris K. Carnes to succeed himself from the Fourth District for a period of two years.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the certification of the Fourth Congressional District caucus, placing in nomination the name of Norris K. Carnes. Are there any further nominations?

MR. AXEL HANSON: Mr. Chairman?

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Mr. Axel Hanson.

MR. AXEL HANSON: As a life member of this Society, and having known and having worked with Mr. Carnes for a good many years, not only in connection with our State Fair but also in connection with our Minnesota Livestock Breeders Association and other agricultural association, and for many years Mr. Carnes was superintendent of the horse department and I was superintendent of the cattle department across the street and we used to fight back and forth until I got him on the Board so he got out of that part of the fairgrounds, but I want to say that I don't know of anyone who has contributed more to the development of not only the State Fair and county fairs, in general, but the livestock industry of this State. Mr. Carnes is Vice President of the Minnesota Livestock Breeders Association. He is on the very important National Meat Board that meets in Washington every so often; an organization that controls, or, tries to control, more or less, meat production, the production of meat animals in this country. Mr. Carnes has contributed a great deal to our State Fair also during the last few years while he has been on the Board, and as Vice President, and as an old friend I take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Mr. Carnes to succeed himself as Vice President of the State Fair.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Thank you, Mr. Hanson.

Are there any further nominations? Any further nominations? Any further nominations?

MR. AXEL HANSON: I also move, Mr. Chairman, that the nominations cease and that the Secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Mr. Carnes.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: It is moved by Mr. Hanson that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Norris K. Carnes. Is there a second?

MR. FRANK MITCHELL: I second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: All those in favor say "Aye"; those opposed "No."

. . .The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Mr. Carnes, you are duly elected. (Applause.)

MR. NORRIS K. CARNES: Mr. Chairman, and ladies and gentlemen: I just want you to know that I appreciate your expression of confidence and I can assure you that as long as I am a member of the Board of Governors of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society I will continue to work for what I consider to be the best interests of that institution.

Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: There is one thing about it, however, when Norris Carnes was now re-elected he does take with him a demotion. He now becomes a Second Vice President and Mr. Robert Andrews here, he is the First Vice President.

MR. ROBERT R. ANDREWS: Thank you.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: That will be tough.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The next order of our meeting today is the election of a manager for a term of three years from the First Congressional District.

SECRETARY LIBBY: Mr. President, I have a certificate of nomination from the caucus held yesterday naming Mr. Stanley Muckle of Owatonna to succeed himself from the First Congressional District for a period of three years.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the report of the caucus of the First Congressional District placing in nomination Mr. Stan Muckle. Are there any further nominations? Are there any further nominations?

MR. ROBERT ANDREWS: I would like to second the nomination of Mr. Muckle.

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: Mr. Chairman, in view of the excellent work that Stan Muckle is rendering the State Society not only during the year but during the Fair, I think he does a tremendous job, I would like to make a motion to close the nominations and instruct the Secretary to cast a unanimous ballot for Stan Muckle of Owatonna for a term of three years in the State Fair Board of Managers.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: I second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: It is moved by Mr. Christianson and seconded by Norris Carnes that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Stanley Muckle to serve for a term of three years from the First Congressional District. All those in favor say "Aye"; those opposed "No."

. . .The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Mr. Stanley Muckle, you are duly elected.

MR. STANLEY MUCKLE: Mr. President and members of the Society and visitors: It is very regretful that I can only address one man in my district here, Mr. Passe from Wabasha. Of course, my general manager, Mrs. Muckle, is sitting down here. But its been a pleasure to serve on this Board since 1955, and I assure you that I will continue to work as hard as I have in the past.

And I thank you very much.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: I have made reference to my wife on several occasions but never with the title of "General Manager." That is a new one to me.

The next order of business is the election of a manager for a term of three years from the Third Congressional District.

SECRETARY LIBBY: Mr. President, the caucus held yesterday of the delegates from the Third Congressional District submit a certificate of nomination for Fred S. Lammers of Stillwater to succeed himself for a term of three years.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Ladies and gentlemen, you heard the report of the Third Congressional District caucus, placing in nomination the name of Fred S. Lammers for a term of three years. Are there any further nominations?

MR. RERAT?

MR. GEORGE RERAT (Minneapolis): I would like to second the nomination. I have known Fred, and it gives me great pleasure and honor to be able to second that. I have known Fred for a good many years down at the old Washington, down there when I would exhibit horses, and I would say as far as being a dedicated man to county fairs, I don't think we have a better man anywhere. He has been very conscientious. I have watched him work on the Fair Board and he has done a terrific job, and I think it is a great honor and privilege to have him stay right where he is.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Are there any further nominations? Are there any further nominations?

MR. GEORGE RERAT: I move the nominations be closed and to cast a unanimous ballot for Fred.

MR. I. B. BYERS: I second the nomination.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: It is moved and seconded that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Fred S. Lammers to succeed himself for a term of three years from the Third Congressional District. All those in favor say "Aye"; opposed "No."

...The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Mr. Lammers, you are duly elected.

MR. FRED S. LAMMERS (Stillwater): Mr. President, fellow members of the Board and guests: Since 1954 I have considered it a great honor and a privilege to serve as a member of the Board of Managers of the Minnesota State Fair. I appreciate the interest and the honor bestowed on me. I will certainly do my best, Al, to be of assistance to the Board of Managers.

Thank you.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: The next order of business is the election of a manager for a term of three years from the Sixth Congressional District.

SECRETARY LIBBY: Mr. President, in the caucus held yesterday, the delegates of the Sixth District submit the name of Birney C. Wilkins in their report of certificate of nomination to succeed himself for a period of three years.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: You have heard the report of the Sixth District caucus, placing in nomination Mr. Birney C. Wilkins to succeed himself.

MR. LOGAN SCOW: Mr. President, I wear two hats this morning, and in view of the fact, and after last night, that I have two heads it is only appropriate. So, as a delegate from the Todd County Agricultural Society, I am happy to second the nomination of Birney Wilkins on the Board of Managers. And as a delegate from the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs, I move that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Birney Wilkins.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: I will second the motion.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: It has been moved by Logan Scow and seconded by Norris Carnes that the nominations cease and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Birney Wilkins to succeed himself as a manager from the Sixth Congressional District. All those in favor say "Aye"; those opposed "No."

. . . The motion was carried. . .

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Mr. Wilkins, you are duly elected.

MR. BIRNEY C. WILKINS (Brainerd): Thank you very much. I want to thank all of you people for the confidence you have placed upon me and it is with considerable pride that I will try to carry out the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

I wish to thank you. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: At this time, I am going to ask our good friend Norris Carnes to again take the Chair.

(Mr. Carnes assumes the Chair.)

MR. THOMPSON: Mr. President?

MR. CARNES: Mr. Thompson.

MR. THOMPSON: At this time each year the time comes to elevate a man to the life honorary membership in this Society. And this being what we would call, though we do in the inner circle call it the "off year," that is, we do not have a retiring president this year, it is at that time that we select a man that has devoted much time, much service, to the State Agricultural Society. I consider it an honor, and, certainly, a pleasure to place in nomination a man that has served the Minnesota State Fair for many, many years. I am referring to our good friend Harry Frost. I have had the privilege to know Harry for more years than I sometimes like to remember, but it goes back a long, long time. He, without question, has built what we term a "space rentals" department, to be the greatest department of its type in any fair on this continent and to be known through the circles of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions as the dean of space rentals superintendents. His advice and council is in great demand at all times to answer questions about concessionaires and various other types of exhibitors.

It is he, too, that built the Farm Implement Exhibit at the Minnesota State Fair to be the greatest exhibit of its kind anywhere on the face of this earth.

Now, I would just like to read to you a bit of his history: Harry J. Frost, his age is 78, was Superintendent of Space Rentals at the State Fair from April, 1924 until 1957. He is now vacationing in McAllen, Texas, and for the past year has been writing a history of the State Fair. Frost was associated with the Brooks Sales Company, from 1909 until 1923, managing grandstand concessions at various Fairs and a skating rink in the old Hippodrome. He was assistant secretary of the Fair from February 15, 1943, until December 1, 1946, while D. K. Baldwin was serving with the Red Cross. He was President of the Midway Club, now Midway Civic Club, from 1936 to 1937, and secretary of the organization from 1940 to 1942. He was Chairman of the St. Paul Winter Carnival Parade Committee from 1939 until 1949. He and his wife, Grace, have three children; they are Gale C. of St. Paul, Harry J., Jr., Omaha, and Mrs. R. A. Rosenwald, (Laura) Western Springs, Illinois. Harry will be 79 coming February Third.

Mr. Chairman, I am happy to place his name in nomination for a life honorary membership in the State Agricultural Society.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Thank you, sir. Are there any other nominations? Mr. Stan Muckle.

MR. STANLEY MUCKLE: Mr. Chairman?

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Yes, sir.

MR. STANLEY MUCKLE: It is my privilege to support this nomination of Harry Frost. When I first entered the Fair business in 1947, I took a trip to Chicago and Harry Frost was the first man I ever met of the Minnesota State Fair group and my experience with him has been very, very fine over the years. I think he will make us a wonderful life member and he really deserves it.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: Thank you very much. Any other nominations? Any other nominations?

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: Mr. Chairman, I move that the nominations be closed and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for Harry Frost as a life member in the Society.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: The motion has been made by our most gracious and genial President, Mr. Al Thompson, and seconded by Stan Muckle that Harry Frost be nominated as a life member of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society. Mr. Christianson, a former president of this illustrious institution, has moved that the nominations cease and that the Secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Harry Frost as a life member of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society. All those in favor of this motion signify by saying "Aye"; contrary minded no.

...The motion was carried. . .

MR. NORRIS CARNES: The Aye's have it. You may cast the ballot for Mr. Frost.

SECRETARY LIBBY: All right.

MR. NORRIS CARNES: I wouldn't want anyone to gather the impression that this meeting today is an outcome of other meetings in smoke-filled rooms, or, that your action this morning was particularly anticipated by any of us that may have something to do with the management of the Minnesota State Agricultural Society, but, evidently, some talk has been carried on along this line and as a result I have a wire here from Harry Frost. And Harry Frost says: "Greetings from sunny southern Texas. Sun shining. 70 above. Please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for my selection as a life member. I know of no honor that I would be more proud to accept. Harry J. Frost." (Applause.)

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Well, it is always customary to have a short talk of acceptance and so we had it here in this instance too.

We have now reached a stage of adjournment unless there is some other business to come before this meeting. Mr. Christianson?

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: I would like to just ask a question, Mr. Chairman. On our leaflet here it indicates that we have "congressional districts" as we elected our directors this morning. I am just wondering, in the amendment to the State Law where we are trying to hold it to the nine districts as previously, what these will be called now if this amendment does go through. Instead of congressional districts, what will they be called?

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: I am going to call upon the assistant attorney general, and our attorney, Charlie Spring, to come forward, and I believe he can give you the legal opinion. Mr. Charlie Spring.

MR. CHARLIE SPRING: I don't need to come forward, Mr. President, but I would just like to say this, that the amendment that we are proposing to the State Legislature has been examined by the Reviser of Statutes, and the wording is that it freezes the districts for selection of members of the Board of Managers at the nine congressional districts that existed up until the last special session of the Legislature. I have been noticing the term "congressional" districts used throughout this meeting and I believe the proper term now would just be "district."

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: "District," right. You might say it would be the removal of the word "congressional," Charlie, and it will be the Fourth District, First District, and so on, in the future.

MR. CHARLES CHRISTIANSON: Then following that up, is there anything indicated—Mr. Scow, maybe, knows—in the Federation as to what they are going to call theirs?

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Well, you have amended your By-laws, have you not, or, Articles of Incorporation?

MR. LOGAN SCOW: Yes. Yesterday morning, after due notice, because we anticipated this, Mr. President, the Federation of County Fairs amended its Articles of Incorporation unanimously to create Directors' Districts within the Federation that coincide with the geographical boundaries of the nine congressional districts as they existed on January 1, 1961.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Right.

MR. LOGAN SCOW: So, we will have the same districts.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON: Any further business to come before this meeting? If not, I again want to thank each of you for being here this morning and also thank you for your fine cooperation throughout the three days of this annual meeting.

With that, I now direct this meeting adjourned.

.Whereupon, at 11:16 o'clock a.m., the meeting was regularly adjourned. . .

Report of the Credentials Committee

The evening of Tuesday was the banquet and social session of the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs and the State Agricultural Society.

At the State Agricultural Society's business session the morning of Wednesday, the 9th, the Resolutions Committee's Report was presented of which two resolutions were to be spread upon the Minutes of the Society.

"Resolved that in the death of Life Member Lee M. Shell the Society suffered a severe loss. His contribution meant much to the development of our Society.

Be it further resolved that our sympathy be extended to the members of his family and that this resolution be spread upon the Minutes of the Society."

"Be it resolved that in the passing of our Secretary-General Manager, Doug Baldwin, December 13, 1962, the Minnesota State Fair was dealt a most severe blow.

Doug Baldwin began his association with the Minnesota State Fair in 1906, when at the age of 12, he carried water to the workers at the old Hippodrome.

He later worked as an office boy, member of the ground crew and time-keeper under Fair Secretaries E. W. Randall, C. N. Cosgrove, J. C. Simpson and Tom Canfield. In 1916 he was assigned permanent duty in the Entry and Publicity Departments of the State Fair by Canfield. He went into the service shortly thereafter, returning in August, 1919 when he began work in the Entry Department and organized the Fair's first Space Sales Department while remaining in charge of the Entry Department.

On August 21, 1921, he was appointed Assistant Secretary, which post he held until he was named Secretary following the retirement of Raymond A. Lee in January, 1951—with the exception of a leave of absence for American Red Cross duties from February, 1943 to December, 1946.

During the 1930's he was Secretary of the Alabama State Fair in Birmingham, commuting to Birmingham at intervals until the Minnesota State Fair was over. He would then return to Birmingham to handle the final rush of duties before that Fair opened in late fall.

He was past president of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions.

With the passing of Doug Baldwin, we of the State Agricultural Society, as well as his many associates throughout the Fair industry have lost a true friend, a great leader and an outstanding Fairman.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread upon the Minutes of the Society."

The following elections then took place:

Albert E. Thompson, Spicer, President, one year term.

Norris K. Carnes, St. Paul, Vice President, two year term.

Stan Muckle, Member of the Board from the 1st District for a term of 3 years.

Birney C. Wilkins, Member of the Board from the 6th District for a term of 3 years.
