ADDITION TO CIVIL SERVICE RULE 12.1d
AS APPROVED BY THE CIVIL SERVICE BOARD

In accordance with the requirements of Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 15.0412, Subdivision 4, the Civil Service Board conducted a public hearing on June 2, 1965, pursuant to due notice, to consider a proposed addition to Civil Service Rule 12.1d; and, based on a showing of need, the following addition (underlined) was adopted:

12.1d   Other Appeals and Investigations

The director shall receive and consider any protests and any matter concerned with the administration of the act and these rules.  On the basis of such protests or on his own initiative, he shall make such investigation as he deems desirable concerning all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of the act and these rules and regulations established thereunder.

The civil service board shall receive and consider any protest by an employee or appointing authority in any matter concerned with the administration of the act and these rules, and after such investigation and hearing or either of them as the board may deem desirable in any case, shall indicate to the director such remedial action as it may deem warranted.

Employees, their representatives, or appointing authorities may appeal to the civil service board from a decision of the director to give an examination on an open competitive or on a promotional basis by filing in the offices of the civil service department a written statement of the reasons for review.  Such appeal must be filed either before or within 15 working days after the official date of the announcement of the examination, or by the closing date of the announcement, whichever is later.
