Minnesota Department of Human Rights

December 31, 1997

The Honorable Jane Ranum
Chair, Senate Judiciary Committee
306 Capitol
75 Constitution Avenue
St. Paul, MN 5515

Dear Senator Ranum:

I am pleased to report to you that the Department of Human Rights has maintained its successful efforts to manage its caseload. We have continued to make improvements that will strengthen our processes, such as developing performance measures that reflect the importance of timeliness and quality.

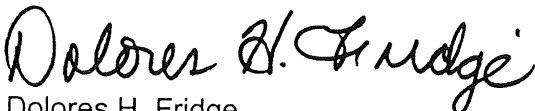

During the six months from July 1 - December 31, 1997, the Department closed 862 cases. On December 31, of the 865 cases needing a determination, only three were older than 12 months (.3%). Two of the three are in settlement or private mediation. The other is projected to have a determination by mid-January. Forty three cases are in Alternative Dispute Resolution. During the six month period, 102 cases were referred to ADR.

The Department is monitoring case status on a regular basis to assure that cases are handled in a timely manner. Every effort is being made to have a determination made in 12 months for all cases. The average time from filing to a dismissal was 156 days; from filing to a determination of no probable cause was 337 days; from filing to determination of probable cause was 297 days.

Enforcement officers are able to spend more time on the investigative aspects of each case, because of restructuring and screened inventory. Enforcement officers now have an average caseload of 25 as compared to 78 in 1996 legislative auditor's report. New performance measures became effective December 1, putting emphasis on timeliness and quality as well as production.

Attached you will find summary information on activity during the past six months. If you need further information, please contact me or Joyce Simon, Director of Staff and Planning at 296-5667.

Sincerely,

Dolores H. Fridge
Commissioner
