ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES SUMMARY OF 1988 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS FOR STATE CANDIDATES,
OFFICEHOLDERS, POLITICAL COMMITTEES, AND POLITICAL FUNDS

Total campaign expenditures by state candidates and officeholders in 1988 reached $3,888,372, from resources totaling $6,694,549, according to a summary of their reports compiled by the Ethical Practices Board.

For the second year since enactment of the current campaign disclosure laws in 1974, the office of representative in the legislature was the only partisan state office on the general election ballot in 1988, 1984 being the first instance. The Board's summary includes data from two special Senate district elections in 1988 (Districts 37 and 48) and one special House district election in 1989 (District 52A).

Comparison of total data from 1988 election year, by type of principal campaign committee, political committee, or political fund, with similar data from 1986 and 1984 election years is included in the report.

1988 General Election

The summary includes information from reports for 1988 filed by committees of 277 candidates seeking the 134 seats in the state House of Representatives; seven candidates for five judicial seats; and 21 political committees or funds organized to promote or defeat state constitutional amendments.

Additionally, the report summarizes data supplied by 305 political party committees and 415 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates. These entities reported total contributions of $22,090,425 received in 1988, from which they made total contributions of $3,063,275 to state candidates. Included in the $22,090,425: $1,300,418 contributed to Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) committees, who made $228,730 contributions to state candidates; $2,604,951 contributed to Independent-Republican (IR) committees, who made $521,421 contributions to state candidates.

The 21 ballot question committees or funds raised a total of $287,432, expending a total of $216,187 in 1988, when three state constitutional amendments were submitted to voters at the November 8th general election.

The campaign spending limit applicable in 1988, based on the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index 1986-1988, was $18,597 for state representative candidates. Information about public financing distributed in 1988 included in the report discloses that 242 (89.4%) of the 291 candidates filing for office voluntarily agreed to abide by spending limits and other conditions in order to receive money from the State Elections Campaign Fund. A total of $1,110,270 in public financing was distributed in 1988. In 1986, 222 (79%) of the House candidates signed public financing agreements (total distributed to House candidates: $645,353); in 1984, 239 (78%) House candidates signed public financing agreements (total distributed to House candidates: $702,080).

According to statistics compiled from candidate reports for the 1988 election, winners outspent losers in 72% of the House races. Candidates in eight House districts (6% of 134 districts) ran without opposition in the 1988 general election.

Special Elections

In special elections, under current law, no public financing is available, so there is no limit on spending. Included in the Board's publication are summary data from reports filed by candidates in three special elections:

Senate District 37 (November 8, 1988) - five candidates spent a total of $60,559, from total resources of $66,015.

Senate District 48 (December 20, 1988) - three candidates spent a total of $38,872, from total resources of $43,729.

House District 52A (February 4, 1989) - two candidates spent a total of $57,230, from total resources of over $65,000.

State Officeholders

Individuals, political committees and funds, and political parties contributed $856,072 to campaign committees of state senators and executive officers in 1988, including total contributions of $447,557 to state executive officeholders. State senators received total contributions of $408,515.

The summary includes reports of receipts and expenditures by the principal campaign committees of the governor, attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor, secretary of state, and state senators.

Beginning cash balances reported by state executive officeholders and state senators on January 1, 1988, totaled $537,628, with total ending cash balances of $718,933 on December 31, 1988, including $443,743 total cash balances of state senators' committees.

Other State Candidate Committees

The Board report notes that 194 committees of candidates for state office were registered with the Board during 1988 whose candidates did not file for office in 1988. The committees report making a total of $113,482 in campaign expenditures in 1988, from resources totaling $384,028. In 1990, all state executive, senate, and house offices will be elected.

The summary includes, for each candidate or officeholder committee, political committee or political fund, total contributions received; total transfers to other candidates, committees or funds; total expenditures; beginning and ending cash balances; and a listing of the names of individuals, committees, or funds contributing, in aggregate during 1988, more than $100 to legislative, county or district court candidates (more than $200 or more to statewide candidates and ballot question committees or funds). A committee or fund's outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, or disbursements other than campaign expenditures or transfers to candidates may not be reflected in the totals reported in the summary.

Reports of receipts and expenditures filed by candidate committees, political committees, and political funds for 1988 are available for public inspection at the Board office, 625 North Robert St., St. Paul. Copies of legislative candidate reports are available for public inspection, also, in the county auditor's office in each county in the candidate's legislative district.
