STATE OF MINNESOTA
ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD

ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES SUMMARY
OF 1994 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS FOR STATE CANDIDATES, POLITICAL COMMITTEES, AND POLITICAL FUNDS

Candidates for state constitutional offices spent $6,986,163 and candidates for house of representatives spent $5,238,145 to seek election in 1994 from total available resources of $13,543,748, according to a summary of campaign finance reports compiled by the Ethical Practices Board.

Contributions from individuals, political committees, political funds, and political parties totaled $3,780,095 for constitutional candidates and $3,197,054 for house candidates. These contributions were received by 39 constitutional office candidates and 306 house candidates in the 1994 elections. Included in the total contributions received by constitutional candidates were 2,273 separate donations of more than $200 each totaling $1,472,176 (39% of total contributions received.) House candidates received contributions from 2,955 separate donations of more than $100 each totaling $1,143,363 (36% of total contributions received.)

The summary is based upon reports for 1994, as filed with the Board by principal campaign committees of candidates for constitutional office and state representative. The summary also includes reports filed by candidates for elective judicial offices in 1994 and data from reports filed by candidates in Special Elections in districts 19, 31, 16, 47, 33, 33B, 47 and 49B.

Additionally the report summarizes data supplied by senate officeholders; state judicial officeholders; committees of candidates who did not file for election in 1994; 310 political party committees; and 378 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates.

Comparison of total data from 1994 election year by principal campaign committee, political committee, or political fund with similar data from 1992 and 1990 election years is included in the summary.

1994 General Election - Candidates

The campaign spending limit applicable in 1994 was based on the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index 1989-1991. The Campaign Expenditure Limit in effect for candidates who signed a Public Subsidy Agreement and filed for office: $1,725,920 for Governor-Lieutenant Governor; $287,655 for attorney general; $143,829 for secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer; and $21,576 for house candidates. There is no limit for elective judgeship candidates. Information about public subsidy distributed in 1994 and included in the report, discloses that 35 (90%) of the 39 candidates filing for constitutional office, and 303 (99%) of the 306 house candidates filing for office, agreed to abide by spending limits and other conditions in order to receive money from the State Elections Campaign Fund. A total of $4,029,625 in public subsidy was distributed to constitutional office and house candidates. In 1992, 441 (97%) candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $2,603,210 to senate and house candidates;) in 1990, 439 (96%) candidates signed public subsidy agreements (total distributed: $4,400,412 to constitutional, senate and house candidates.)

According to statistics compiled from candidate reports for the 1994 election, winners outspent losers in 100% of the constitutional office races and 73% in the house races. Candidates in 10 legislative districts (7% of 134 districts) ran without opposition in the 1994 general election. There were no constitutional offices that ran without opposition in the 1994 general election.

Campaign expenditures in 1994 reported by candidates for constitutional office were made from funding of $3,729,534 in contributions from individuals, political committees, and political funds (65%); $1,960,378 from public subsidy (34%); and $50,561 in contributions from political parties (1%). In 1994, 39 constitutional candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $5,738,359.

In 1994, 306 house candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $4,339,221 a 15% increase in campaign spending when compared with total expenditures of $3,780,740 in 1992 and a 24% increase compared with total spending of $3,510,661 in 1990. In 1994, house candidates spent $14,180 on the average, compared with $12,773 in 1992, and $12,860 in 1990. The highest amount expended by a house candidate in 1994 was $51,400, compared with $43,365 in 1992 and $36,991 in 1990.

The Board's summary for 1994 includes reports filed by principal campaign committees of nineteen candidates for election to nine district court seats and one candidate for election to one appeals court seat. Judicial candidates reported total campaign expenditures of $270,598 from resources totaling $287,294.

1994 General Election - Political Committees and Political Funds

Reports filed by 310 political party committees and 378 political committees and political funds who contribute to state candidates disclosed receipt of contributions totaling $28,618,113 in 1994 from which they made total contributions of $8,200,728 to state candidates. Included in the $28,618,113: $2,588,126 contributed to Democratic Farmer Labor (DFL) committees which made $538,930 contributions to state candidates; $4,220,913 contributed to Independent Republican (IR) committees which made $457,433 contributions to state candidates.
