MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Holmquist moved that the Senate do now adjourn until 11:00 o'clock A.M., Thursday, January 7th, 1971.

Mr. Coleman moved a call of the Senate.

Mr. Dosland raised a point of order on the call of the Senate declaring the call was out of order since the Senate was not organized. The Chair announced the temporary rules had been adopted on the first day of the session, and that the Senate was organized. Upon inquiry by Mr. Dosland on the vote for the purported temporary rules, Mr. Davies announced the vote was yeas 33 and nays none. The Chair ruled Mr. Dosland's point of order was not proper. Mr. Dosland appealed the decision of the Chair and requested a roll call vote.

After a discussion on the matter, Mr. Dosland withdrew his appeal.

Mr. Coleman renewed his call of the Senate and requested absentees.

Mr. Coleman then moved to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the Senate.

Mr. Holmquist raised a point of order on the grounds that the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the Senate was out of order.

The Chair ruled Mr. Coleman's motion to be in order.

Mr. Coleman objected to the use of the electronic voting machine and the vote was taken by Viva Voce.
